

JOURNEY OF THE HEART

Verse 1:

Empty streets and hollow nights
I've walked this path a thousand times
Searching for a spark to ignite
This darkness that I've come to find

Pre-Chorus:

Then I see you standing there
A match struck in the cold night air

Chorus:

It's an journey of the heart
A slow burn turning into flames
We soar so high, then fall apart
How many times must I play this game?

Verse 2:

Your touch, a fuse that's newly lit
Smoldering beneath my skin
Each moment feels infinite
As passion starts to draw me in

Pre-Chorus:

We burn so bright, we burn so fast
Knowing this fire cannot last

(Repeat Chorus)

Bridge:

Explosion of light and heat
Consuming everything we know
But embers quickly retreat
Leaving me alone in the afterglow

Final Chorus:

It's an journey of the heart
From loneliness to love's embrace
We ignite, explode, then drift apart
How many scars will this journey trace?

Outro:

Back in the void, I stand alone
Wondering if I'll ever learn
That everyjourney of the heart
Begins and ends with the same slow burn

ANTONY AND THE HEART OF ROME

Verse 1:

Antony, you clever fox
Your holidays outside the box
Lovers here and lovers there
Lovers, lovers everywhere

Chorus:

But then came a queen who conquered your heart
She cast her spell and it was over
No more ...a lover rover
Some build empires with armies, some with love
Generals come and generals go
But what love builds in legends will endure

Verse 2:

Roman nights and Egyptian days
Your heart caught in a passionate haze
Cleopatra's eyes, a siren's call
The mighty Antony's final fall

(Repeat Chorus)

Bridge:

From Rome to Alexandria, a love that shook the world
Two souls entwined, their destiny unfurled
Power and passion, a dangerous game
In history's pages, immortalized their name

Verse 3:

Casanova, take note of this tale
Even the greatest lovers can fail
When true love strikes, it strikes so deep
A connection that eternity will keep

(Repeat Chorus)

Outro:

Antony's Roman Holiday
A love story that will never fade away

TELL ME CASANOVA

Verse 1:

In Venice canals, your legend still floats
Seducing with words from your handwritten notes
Masked balls and moonlight, a master of charm
Your stories of passion still raises alarms

Chorus:

Casanova tell me true
How can I be more like you?
I'm a dream lover but I want to be real
Your confessions seal the deal

Verse 2:

From Paris to Prague, you left broken hearts
A trail of adventures, where do I start?
Your memoirs reveal the art of romance
I'm stumbling through love, I don't stand a chance

(Chorus)

Bridge:

But behind the myth, there's a man who knew pain
Exiled and imprisoned, yet loved all the same
Your honesty touches more than your skill
I'll learn from your heart, not just from your will

(Chorus)

Outro:

Casanova's confessions, a blueprint for love
I'll write my own story with lessons above
No longer a legend, but flesh and blood true
Casanova, I'll be real, but I'll never be you

Each little part of you

Woven into the fabric of us

The good, the bad, it forms the art

A lifetime of different parts

Some threads are frayed, some crystal clear
Joys and sorrows we hold dear
Every stitch tells our tale
A love so strong it cannot fail

For a cure to ease my pain
But I found the perfect medicine
It's flowing through my veins

I need the therapy of your touch
Which I love so much, oh so much

Sweeter than anything I've heard
I need the therapy of your care
It's beyond compare, always there
I need the therapy of your love
You're a gift from high above

[Verse 2]

When the pressure's risin'
And I'm about to break
Your reggae rhythm soothin'
Every step I take

ONE DROP OF LOVE

I was lost in the darkness, couldn't find my way
Stumbling through life, day after day
Then you came along, with your heart so true
One drop of your love, and my sky turned blue

One drop of love is all you need
It's free to give, it's free to get
One drop of love, and your life's complete

[Verse 2]

One drop of love, changed my whole world around
Lifted me up when I was down on the ground
One drop of love can change your heart
Open your eyes to a brand new start

One drop of love, one drop of love
One drop of love is all you need
It's free to give, it's free to receive
One drop of love, my soul's replete

True love's treasure can't be bought or sold
One drop of love freely given
Is worth more than all the riches in heaven

You'll be amazed at what it can do
One simple act, one kind embrace
Can light up the world, put a smile on any face

She blooms in the garden, where love is born
Her smile like sunshine, her laugh like rain

She'll make you feel alive, make you wanna try
To be a better man, to stand up tall
But one wrong move and she'll make you fall

Her love is like fire, her touch cool as water

Those thorns are for real, they can cut through the night

My body moves, and the world around me blurs

Cool people fooled, caught up in the trance

Our eyes lock, and I know she could be mine

DANCEHALL DOWN

Verse 1:

Rollin' down the dusty road, in daddy's pickup truck
White carnation on my chest, yeah I'm pushin' my luck
Headed to the dancehall, with dreams of Marylou
Heart's beatin' like a drum, wonderin' what I'm gonna do

Chorus:

Dancehall down, lights are low
Reggae beats and R&B soul
Thought I knew just what I wanted
'Til brown eyes stole the show

Verse 2:

Marylou's across the room, lookin' fine in blue

Even when the tears fall from my eyes
'Cause I know, yes I know

Chorus:

Sunshine through the pain
No matter where I go
There's a chance of a rainbow
Sunshine through the tears
Healing through the years
Gotta keep on moving, yeah
'Cause there's always a rainbow after the rain

Verse 2:

Life's rhythm can be tough sometimes
Beating down hard like heavy bass lines
But even in the darkest hour
I feel the music's healing power

So I sway to the reggae beat
Let it lift me to my feet
'Cause I know, yes I know

OPEN HEARTS, OPEN DOORS (CHRISTMAS)

Tinsel and lights, a warm fireplace glow
While out in the cold, some have nowhere to go
We sing of good cheer and peace on Earth

When will we open our hearts and our doors?
Share what we have with those who have less
Is Christmas just family or something more?
A time to reach out, to heal and to bless

Our children watch closely, they learn what we do
Are we teaching them kindness, to help someone new?
A plate at our table, a warm place to sleep
These simple gestures, so precious, so deep
(Repeat Chorus)

What do we tell them by holding back?
That some don't matter, that some souls lack?
Or can we show them a love so bright
It shines for all on Christmas night?

It's meant to be shared with each daughter and son
Of this human family, no matter their place
Let's extend our circle with kindness and grace

And feel what the season was meant for

In cowboy boots

Time to rest in your cozy bed.
Though you slumber the whole night through,

CROSSFIRE

(Verse 1)

I was walking down the street, rhythm in my shoes,
Snappin' my fingers to that bebop blues,
Heard a little jive from a smoky café,
A cat on the corner said, "Hey, come this way!"

(Verse 1)

Well, I was strollin' down the avenue, mindin' my own,
When she caught my eye, baby, I was gone,
Her smile was blazing, couldn't look away,
I'm caught in the crossfire, baby, what can I say?

(Chorus)

Shoo-bop, doo-wop, caught in the crossfire,
Bop-shee-bop, baby, set me on fire,
Skiddle-dee-wee, and a wah-wah-wah,
Caught in the crossfire, can't go far!

(Verse 2)

She's got that spark, man, she's got that heat,
Her eyes are like lightning, my heart skips a beat,
We're dancing close, the rhythm's tight,
Caught in the crossfire, baby, all night!

(Chorus)

Shoo-bop, doo-wop, caught in the crossfire,
Bop-shee-bop, baby, set me on fire,
Skiddle-dee-wee, and a wah-wah-wah,
Caught in the crossfire, can't go far!

(Bridge)

Her love's like dynamite, ready to blow,
I'm in the middle, can't escape the show,
She's got me twisted, can't find my way,
Caught in the crossfire, and I just wanna stay!

(Chorus)

Shoo-bop, doo-wop, caught in the crossfire,
Bop-shee-bop, baby, set me on fire,
Skiddle-dee-wee, and a wah-wah-wah,
Caught in the crossfire, can't go far!

(Outro)

Now the night's winding down, but I'm still in the game,
She's got me spinning, don't know my name,
Caught in the crossfire, no need to run,
Bebop-baby, you're my only one!

BACKSTAGE PASS

(Verse 1)

I was walking down the street, rhythm in my shoes,
Snappin' my fingers to that bebop blues,
Heard a little jive from a smoky café,
A cat on the corner said, "Hey, come this way!"

(Chorus)

Bee bop an alley, swingin' so fast,
I got my bah bah backstage pass,
Oh yas, oh yas, feel that groove,
Let's cut the rug and make it smooth!

(Verse 2)

Stepped inside, the joint was jumpin' hot,
Saxophones wailin', hittin' every spot,
The band was cookin' on a bebop track,
And I was ready, baby, to never look back!

(Chorus)

Bee bop an alley, swingin' so fast,
I got my bah bah backstage pass,
Oh yas, oh yas, feel that groove,
Let's cut the rug and make it smooth!

(Bridge)

Well, the lights went down and the crowd went wild,
Snuck backstage with a wink and a smile,
The beat was bangin', the night was young,
I knew right then I was in for some fun!

(Chorus)

Bee bop an alley, swingin' so fast,
I got my bah bah backstage pass,
Oh yas, oh yas, feel that groove,
Let's cut the rug and make it smooth!

(Outro)

Now the night's a blur, but the music lasts,
Got my memories and my backstage pass,
Bee bop an alley, we had a blast,
Move your ass
Keep on swingin', baby, let's make it last!

HEARTSTRINGS

I saw her standing by the jukebox, oh so fine,
Her eyes were shining like a neon sign,
She gave a little wink, oh what could it mean?
She's got me tangled up in her sweet machine.

(Chorus)

She's plucking my heartstrings, baby, all night long,
Playing that rhythm, I can't get it wrong,
She's strumming my soul with every beat she brings,
Oh, baby, keep pulling on those heartstrings!

(Verse 2)

We danced all night to that rock and roll sound,
Her hands on the strings, spinning me around,
She knows just how to tune me up right,
With every little touch, she's holding me tight.

(Chorus)

She's plucking my heartstrings, baby, all night long,
Playing that rhythm, I can't get it wrong,
She's strumming my soul with every beat she brings,
Oh, baby, keep pulling on those heartstrings!

(Bridge)

Well, she's got the melody that drives me wild,
With a little twist and a knowing smile,
Every note she plays is pure delight,
She's got me humming her tune tonight.

(Chorus)

She's plucking my heartstrings, baby, all night long,
Playing that rhythm, I can't get it wrong,
She's strumming my soul with every beat she brings,
Oh, baby, keep pulling on those heartstrings!

(Outro)

Yeah, she's the one who makes my heart sing,
She's got me wrapped up, tied to her string,
So let's keep dancing till the morning light,
Baby, pull those heartstrings tight!

STEPPING STONE

Verse 1:

She was just a small-town girl
With big dreams in her eyes
I was her ticket out of here
At least that's what she implied

Chorus:

Stepping stones, that's all we are
On her way to being a star
She's climbing high, while I'm sinking low
Stepping stones, watch her go

Verse 2:

I gave her all I had to give
My heart, my soul, my dough
She took it all without a thought
And then she let me know

(Repeat Chorus)

Bridge:

Now I see her on TV
Living out her fantasy
While I'm stuck here all alone
Just another stepping stone
Guitar Solo

So if you meet a girl like her
With ambition in her smile
Remember what I'm telling you
She'll use you for a while

(Repeat Chorus)

Stepping stones, that's all we are
Stepping stones, she's gone too far
Stepping stones, watch her go
Stepping stones, now you know)

Blowin' me away
Perfect storm, sweetheart
Rainin' down night and day
Can't escape your love, it's surrounding me
You're my perfect storm, set my passion free

Verse 2:

Wind's pickin' up, can't keep my feet on the ground
Your love spins me 'round, baby, world's upside down
Forecast calls for passion, with a chance of bliss
Caught in your whirlwind, swept up in your kiss

Some might run for shelter
But I'm standing in the rain
Your love may be wild, darlin'
But I'm not complaining

Tangled threads of who we were
Frayied at the edges, starting to blur
Promises made, but never kept
A tapestry of love, we wept

Chorus:

We're just loose ends, baby
Blowin in the wind
Loose ends, maybe
It's time we finally end
This unraveling story
We can't pretend
We're just loose ends, honey
Let's tie it off again

Verse 2:

You're slipping through my fingers now
Like sand in an hourglass, somehow
We used to be so tightly bound
Now we're scattered now, all over town

It's where we begin and where we end

Silent treatment, a peaceful sensation
No need to speak, no need to fight
In this silence, everything's alright

Used to think your quiet was cruel
Now I see it as a healing tool
In the absence of your voice
I've made silence my choice

Learning lessons that can't be bought
Your silence taught me to look within
Now the healing can begin

Trying to find my way

No longer bound by currency
I'm pocket change, a transformation
More than coins, I'm a new sensation

Used to think I was small time
Just copper pennies, hardly shine
But now I see I've got the range
To be more than pocket change

I'm pocket change, watch me rearrange
My whole world, I'm pocket change

BURNING BRIDGES

Verse 1:

Struck a match, watched it flare
Tossed it on the wooden planks out there
The flames rose higher, smoke filled the air
But I couldn't look away, just stare

Destroying connections, setting myself free
The heat of my actions, it's burning my skin
But I can't go back to where I've been

Every word I said was gasoline
Fueling the fire of a broken dream
Relationships crumble, turn to ash
Can't rebuild what's reduced to trash

The embers glow, reminding me
Of all the people I'll no longer see
But as I watch the last spark die
I realize it's time to say goodbye

Of friendships lost and burned in flames
Was it worth it? I'm not so sure

The smoke is rising, but for the first time I feel free

Autocorrect: Won't you bury me?
That's it, Sonya's gone for good
All because my phone misunderstood

Autocorrect, you've ruined my life
Turned potential love into strife
Next time I'll double-check and see
Before I send a texted plea

The words I meant to show
Curse you, autocorrect, you fiend
You've wrecked my romantic dream

He's groovin' round the pool
Disco, Disco Dog
My dad's surprisingly cool

My embarrassment turned to glee
As dad's moves became divine

Dad jokes can be so cool!

PROCRASTINATORS ANTHEM

I'm organized, got lists galore
Swear I won't put it off anymore
Yesterday, forgot to walk the pup
He couldn't hold it, what a mix-up

I'll get around to it, can't you see?
Just give me time, I'll make it happen
For now, I'll take another nappin'

Got reports due, deadlines loom
I'll get to it... maybe next moon
Boss says I need some help, it's true
Told him I'd get around to that too

Forgot to buy tickets for the game
I know, I know, it's kinda lame
But hey, it's on TV in a week

I'll get around to it, eventually
The art of delay, I've mastered well
Tomorrow's another day... Oh well!

I'll finish this song... some other time
For now, let's call it a perfect rhyme
The Procrastinator's Anthem, loud and clear
I'll sing the rest... maybe next year

SOCIAL MEDIA JUNKY

Verse 1:

I said, "Just five minutes, I'll check things out"
Three-headed sheep, is that what it's about?
Needed a car, but look at that boat
My attention span's become a sacrificial goat

Chorus:

Can't stop scrolling, thumb's on fire
Each new post takes me higher
Reality's fading, time's flying by
Is this addiction? Oh my, oh my!

Verse 2:

Lonely girl says no one likes farmers
Her sad eyes are quite the charmer
Exercise plans and weight loss miracles
More cute girls and viral spectacles

Who won the potato sack race?
Invest now and leave the rat race!
Cute kittens and conspiracy theories
My brain's turned to mush, I'm getting weary

Five minutes turned into two hours flat
My productivity's fallen splat
Do you think I might be addicted?
My real life's been badly afflicted

(Chorus)

Outro:

Just one more scroll, one more like
One more share, one more swipe
The world keeps turning as I stay still
Stuck in this social media treadmill
Can't stop scrolling, help me please!
I'm drowning in likes and emojis!

THE PASSWORD IS...

(Verse 1)

I'm talkin' to a machine again,
It won't let me in, oh no, my friend.
What is two-stage validation?
There's something wrong with this nation.
I can barely remember one password,
I tried to make it absurd.
You never know who might want
The three dollars in my bank account.

(Chorus)

If my identity is stolen, can I get a new one?
Which is email? Which is the bank?
I can't remember a thing, my mind is blank.
It says my password is weak, but I think it's telling me
That my brain is weak.
Please let me in! Please let me in.
I think it's here to mock me... Hey, is that a grin?

(Verse 2)

I've got post-its on my monitor,
Passwords galore, but what's the score?
Caps lock on, or is it off?
Now I'm stuck in a password trough.
Special characters, numbers too,
What more do you want me to do?
I tried "Password123,"
But it just laughed at me.

(Chorus)

If my identity is stolen, can I get a new one?
Which is email? Which is the bank?
I can't remember a thing, my mind is blank.
It says my password is weak, but I think it's telling me
That my brain is weak.
Please let me in! Please let me in.
I think it's here to mock me... Hey, is that a grin?

MONICA, MY GPS

Verse 1:

I call my GPS, Monica, she's my digital guide
Always there to show the way, my faithful roadside bride
When I'm lost and all alone, she whispers in my ear
"Turn right in 500 feet," oh how I love that voice to hear

Chorus:

Monica, which way should I go?
Your voice makes my heart overflow
You're always right, day or night
Monica, you're my guiding light

Verse 2:

I use her driving home sometimes, though I know every street
Just to hear her sultry tones, it makes my day complete
"Speed limit exceeded," she scolds me with care
I slow down just to please her, we make quite a pair

(Chorus)

Bridge:

Her voice is so sexy, I always obey
"Keep straight for 2 miles," and I'm on my way
I dream of the day when we'll finally meet
I'll sweep her off her virtual feet

Verse 3:

I hope to meet Monica someday, to see her face to face
I'm sure she'd think I'm charming, we'd navigate love's maze
But till then, I'll keep driving, with her voice as my guide
My GPS love story, with Monica by my side

(Chorus)

Outro:

"You have reached your destination"
Oh Monica, if you only knew
This journey's just beginning
And it's all because of you

TUESDAY TACO BLUES

Verse 1:

I took my girls for Tuesday tacos
Wanted to make a good impression
Piled on sauce like a macho nacho
Little did I know the lesson

Chorus:

I got the Taco Tuesday Blues
Salsa stains and heartburn too
But who knew love could taste so spicy?
I got the Taco Tuesday Blues

Verse 2:

The sauce ran down my ironed shirt
A fashion disaster in the making
My date took a bite, oh what a sight
Her blouse now salsa-quaking
She caught me staring, said with a glare
"Hey buddy, my eyes are up here!"
But with guacamole on her lips so green
How could I look anywhere?

(Chorus)

Bridge:

Lettuce in her teeth, cheese in her hair
Sour cream on her nose, but I didn't care
In that messy moment, cupid took aim
Now my heart's burning like habanero flame

Verse 3:

I fell in love that very night
With her taco-loving soul
She's my kind of alright
Making my half-empty heart whole

(Chorus)

Outro:

So if you're looking for romance
Give Taco Tuesday a chance
You might find love in a tortilla shell
And a story that's funny as hell
I got the Taco Tuesday Blues
And they taste so good with you

MY PHONE DUMPED ME

Verse 1:

I remember when I dropped you on the ground (oh No!)
Your screen cracked like a spiderweb, I felt like such a clown
I tried to fix you with some tape, but that just made it worse
Now every selfie looks like it's been through a blender first

Chorus: (scat)

Beep beep, buzz buzz, my phone is throwing fits
Ping ping, click click, it's giving me the bits
Bloop bloop, whirr whirr, it's mad as it can be
Bzzzt... silence... my smartphone just dumped me

Verse 2:

That day we went to the pool, I thought you'd be alright
Forgot you were in my pocket when I took that diving flight
I fished you out, tried CPR, but you were far too wet
Now all my contacts are just fish food, a fact I won't forget

(Chorus)

Verse 3:

I didn't mean to make you mad, I swear I tried my best
But I forgot to charge you up, you needed your beauty rest
Your battery died in the middle of my important call
Now my boss thinks I'm a flake, and I might lose it all

(Chorus)

Outro:

Fine! I've had enough of your digital attitude
I'll replace you with a model that's slim, fast, and new
Wait... what's this? A flicker on the screen?
You've come back to life, oh please, don't be so mean!

(Phone's voice, robotic):

"User detected. Reactivating. Please update me."

CANDLELIGHT SONATA

How gentle is the candlelight
Soft shadows dance
Oh what a sight
In this warm glow
We take flight
In love's embrace
Feels so right

Fingers trace your silhouette
A symphony of touch

Enough

Feel it flow

Our melody tonight
Notes of passion play
In this flickering light
Fingers trace your silhouette
A symphony of touch
In this gentle radiance
We can't get enough (ENOUGH)

For a thousand years, we've fought and bled
Fields of battle strewn with dead

No more guns, no more guns
Stop the bombs that rain down from the sky

To feed your war machine so cold
Their dreams are crushed, their futures spent
Is this the legacy you meant?

As martyrs draw their final breath
There's no honor in this bloody scene
Just broken lives and what might've been

Books, not bombs; pens, not swords
Let's rewrite these war-torn chords

(Chorus)

Mr. Senator, it's time to choose
To win this fight, we all must lose
Our weapons and our warrior's pride
Let peace and reason be our guide

No more guns, no more guns
Fund potential, set our children free
No more guns, no more guns

Outro:

It's time to stop, Mr. Senator

Young Jimmy heard the call to arms
His country needed him, they said
He grabbed his gun with eager hands
Not knowing where this path would lead

Verse 2:

They shipped him off to foreign shores
Where flags and faces were unknown
He marched in line with boys like him
Their hearts ablaze, their minds their own

But as the bullets started flying
And bombs lit up the midnight sky
Jimmy's certainty started dying
As he watched his fellow soldiers die

We must not fight if there is to be
Peace in our time, peace in our time
Lay down your guns, let's set us free
Peace in our time, peace in our time

Jimmy wondered why he came
The enemy looked just like him
Young boys caught in a deadly game

Remembering days of almost fame
And the bottle that put out his flame

He sees himself in those old machines
Polishing chrome like it's his name in lights

Raindrops fallin', like tears from the sky
Stirring up memories, I can't let die
Banks overflowing, with pain and regret
Washing away the life I once met

(Chorus)

Bridge:

Is it the world that's changin', or is it just me?
These muddy waters, won't let me see
Can't find my reflection, in this troubled stream
Lost in the current of a broken dream

Tried to fight it, tried to make it clean
But these muddy waters, keep risin' it seems
Guess I'll sit here, watch the water flow
Wondering where my clear days go

Muddy waters rising, leaving peace behind

BACK ROAD TO NOWHERE

Verse 1:

Cruisin' down the highway, sun on my face
Thought I was headed for a better place
Ring in my pocket, hope in my heart
Never saw it comin', how we'd fall apart

Chorus:

I was on the main road to somewhere
When I saw you with that guy
I was ready to settle down and start a family
But now I'm on the backroad to nowhere

Verse 2:

Tires screechin', as I turned away
Couldn't bear to see you, couldn't find words to say
Dreams shattered like glass on the ground
Now I'm lost, can't be found

(Chorus)

Bridge:

Drove off the road, found a new path
Dust in my eyes, pain in my laugh
Don't know where I'm goin', don't really care
Just know I can't go back to there

Verse 3:

This backroad's rough, full of twists and turns
Every mile I drive, my heart still burns
Guess I'll keep goin', till the tank runs dry
On this road to nowhere, under an empty sky

(Chorus)

Outro:

I know of the road to nowhere
Yeah, I'm on the backroad to nowhere

JUKEBOX JOINT

Verse 1:

Old neon sign, flickerin' in the night
Cracked leather stool, feels just right
Smoke-filled air, familiar faces
This old jukebox joint, one of my favorite places

Chorus:

There's a jukebox cafe where I used to go
I put in a quarter to release my memories slow
I don't know why I keep goin' there
It's a comfort to dwell on my sadness here

Verse 2:

Bartender nods, pours my usual drink
Jukebox in the corner, makes me think
Of better days, when you were by my side
Now these songs, just remind me how I've cried

(Chorus)

Bridge:

Each coin I drop, brings back your smile
For a moment, makes life worthwhile
But when the music stops, I'm alone again
Trapped in this loop of now and then

Verse 3:

Closing time comes, but I can't leave
These memories are all I've got to believe
Tomorrow I'll be back, quarter in my hand
Trying to relive a past I can't understand

(Chorus)

Outro:

It's a comfort to dwell on my sadness here
In this juke joint, with memories so dear

BLUESVILLE TRAIN

Verse 1:

Midnight's dark and the stars won't shine
Sittin' by the tracks, whiskey on my mind
Memories of you, fadin' like smoke
Left me here, flat broke and broke

Chorus:

I hear that lonesome train whistle blow
It's comin' closer, can't you hear it so?
I'm headed for Bluesville, ain't no turnin' back
It is my fate, to ride these railroad tracks

Verse 2:

Packed my troubles in an old suitcase
Got no destination, just leavin' this place
Cold wind blowin', through my threadbare coat
That train's my ticket, my only hope

(Chorus)

Bridge:

People say the grass is greener down the line
But all I see is blue, all the time
This train's my home now, rollin' through the night
Carryin' my blues, till the morning light

Verse 3:

Don't know where I'm goin', don't know where I've been
Just know I can't face, your memory again
That whistle's callin', like a siren's song
Guess I'll keep ridin', till my heartache's gone

(Chorus)

Outro:

That lonesome train whistle, it haunts my soul
Bluesville bound, that's where I'll go

MIDNIGHT CROSSROADS

Verse 1:

Midnight's fallin', moon hangin' down low
Wind's a-howlin', don't know where to go
Left turn, right turn, both look the same
Can't move forward, can't escape this pain

Chorus:

Here I stand, yeah
Gotta choose what to do
The Blues have me headin' home
The Blues, The Blues
Stopped me from goin' ahead

Verse 2:

Devil's at my back, angel's up ahead
Memories of you, swimmin' in my head
Crossroads dusty, stickin' to my feet
Heart so heavy it can barely beat

(Chorus)

Bridge:

Thought I was strong, thought I could move on
But these crossroads, are provin me wrong
Every step forward, pulls me two steps back
Blues got me trapped, on this lonesome track

Verse 3:

Guitars are cryin', in the distance now
Wanna follow that sound, but I don't know how Midnight's passin', still I can't decide
These Blues at the crossroads are eat me alive

(Chorus)

The Blues, oh The Blues
Got me stuck at the crossroads tonight

EMPTY POCKETS, HEAVY HEART

Verse 1:

Woke up this mornin', pockets turned inside out
Bills keep pilin', got no way to pay 'em down
Factory closed its doors, left me high and dry
Now I'm walkin' these streets, with nowhere to fly

Chorus:

I lost my job, I have regrets
But that ain't nothin' until you left
Empty pockets, empty bed
I feel the blues, I got a heavy heart

Verse 2:

Used to have it all, baby by my side
Good payin' job, took it all in stride
Now the whistle don't blow, and you don't call
Seems like everything I had, just had to fall

(Chorus)

Bridge:

Tried to drown my sorrows, in a bottle of gin
But the blues keep comin', like waves rollin' in
Can't shake this feelin', can't escape this pain
Empty pockets, heavy heart, driving me insane

Verse 3:

Sun's goin' down, another day's gone by
Still got no prospects, still wonderin' why
You packed your bags, said you'd had enough
Left me alone, to face this world so tough

(Chorus)

Outro:

Empty pockets, heavy heart
Lord, I got these blues, tearin' me apart

YESTERDAY'S LOVE LETTERS

Verse 1:

Dusty old shoebox, hidden away
Memories come flooding, from a better day
Your handwriting's faded, but the words still burn
Got me wonderin' why, love had to turn

Chorus:

I found the love letters and I lost my heart
Yesterday's love letters... now we're apart

Verse 2:

Sweet words of promise, sealed with a kiss
Never thought we'd end up, quite like this
Paper's yellowed and brittle, just like my soul
Reading these words, is taking its toll

(Chorus)

Bridge:

You said forever, but forever's gone
These letters remind me, of what went wrong
Promises broken, dreams turned to dust
Now all that remains, is heartache and rust

Verse 3:

Gonna burn these letters, watch the ashes fly
Maybe then I'll stop, wonderin' why
But your words haunt me, like a mournful song
Echoing the love, that used to be strong

(Chorus)

Outro:

Yesterday's love letters... now we're apart
Oh, yesterday's love letters... tore me apart

RAINY DAY LOVE

[Verse]

Yo, it's time to let go, but feelings overflow
Raindrops echo, heart beatin' real slow
A rainy day, ain't no way to hide the flow
Pain drips down, somber vibes in tow

[Verse 2]

Cozy by the window, coffee brewin', thoughts on rewind
Droplets dance, drain's the ballroom for my mind
Cold inside, world outside gray and confined
In your arms, feelin' love, infinite and unconfined

[Bridge]

Raindrops on the rooftop, they serenade sweet
Melody from the heavens, a divine treat
Wrapped tight, worries take a backseat
Storm rages on, but our stories on repeat

[Chorus]

Let the rain pour down, pain gettin' washed away
This moment's ours, ain't nothin' in our way
Rain or shine, in this place we'll stay
Forever in this cozy love, please...don't stray

[Verse 3]

Rain drizzlin', mind scribblin' verses unspoken
Heart feelin' heavy, future lookin' so broken
Your touch, my remedy, ain't no jokin'
In this storm, our love's the only token

[Chorus]

Let the rain pour down, let it cleanse the pain
In this fleeting moment, our love will remain
Though the rain will pass and you might go
This rainy day love, forever it'll glow

LIVING IN THE MOMENT

(Intro Guitar solo)

[Verse]

Every single day
We try to run away
From the pain we feel
From the words we hear
But the Earth keeps spinning
It won't slow down
And in this crazy world
We're just a speck
Lost and found

[Chorus]

La la la
Living in the moment
La la la
Feeling so potent
No matter how hard we try to plan and scheme
In this wild world
We're just livin' it now
Livin' the dream

[Verse 2]

Trying to make it big
Trying to hit the top
But what's the point if we can't stop?
The past is just a memory
Fading away
And the future's just a dream
We're living today

[Chorus]

La la la
Living in the moment
La la la
Feeling so potent
No matter how hard we try to plan and scheme
In this wild world
We're just livin' it now
Livin' the dream

La La La Livin the dream (livin the dream)

MY SHATTERED PAST

(Verse 1)

In the wreckage of my shattered dreams,
I'm sifting through the debris, it seems.
Pieces of my heart scattered on the floor,
A broken soul, longing for more.

(Pre-Chorus)

I thought I found love, but it slipped away,
Leaving me alone in the cold, dismayed.
Now I'm left to pick up the remnants of my past,
In the ruins of love, I'm an outcast.

(Chorus)

Picking up the pieces of a broken heart,
Stumbling in the dark, torn apart.
Trying to mend what's been torn asunder,
In the aftermath of love's cruel plunder.

(Verse 2)

Every memory a dagger in my chest,
Haunting echoes of love's bitter test.
I built my world on promises unkept,
Now I'm left with tears that never slept.

(Pre-Chorus)

I thought I found solace in someone new,
But their love was just a fleeting hue.
Now I'm back to where I started, alone,
In the ruins of love, I've turned to stone.

(Chorus)

Picking up the pieces of a broken heart,
Lost in the abyss, drifting apart.
Trying to find the light in the darkness,
In the aftermath of love's cruel harness.

(Bridge)

But I refuse to let love's wounds define,
The essence of this heart of mine.
I'll rise from the ashes, strong and bold,
With scars as reminders of stories untold.

FEELINGS REAL

(Intro Music)

[Verse]

When I see you I want you
When you smile I need you
Fears disappear when you're near Doubts gone Just you here

[Verse 2]

Is this real or just a game
Feelings strong but are they same
Will you want me when I'm old
Love me more as days unfold

[Chorus]

I know how I feel
But is the feeling real
You say that you love me
But how can I really see

[Verse 3]

When the days are turning grey
Will you still want me to stay
When the years have made us wise
Will I still see love in your eyes

[Chorus]

I know how I feel
But is the feeling real
You say that you love me
But how can I really see

[Bridge]

Time will tell us all we need
In your heart do I plant a seed
Love that grows or fades away
Tell me now What will you say

BEE BOB

Verse 1:

There's a bee in the hive, thinks he's mighty smart
Bob's got big plans, gonna set himself apart
He buzzes 'round the honeycomb, thinkin' he's the best
Thinks the queen's just makin' babies while he handles the rest

Chorus:

Bee-bop, buzz-buzz, Bob's got a plan
Thinks he'll be king, rule over this land
But the queen, she's no fool, she's got her own game
Bee-bop, buzz-buzz, Bob's in for some pain
(Scat) Zim-zam-zoom, buzzy-buzzy-boom
Honey-honey-hum, Bob's gonna meet his doom

Verse 2:

Bob campaigns all day, tries to sway the hive
"Follow me," he says, "And we'll all thrive!"
But the queen keeps busy, layin' eggs so neat
Her loyal babies hatch, Bob can't compete

(Repeat Chorus)

Bridge:

(Scat) Bee-bop-bee-bop, sting-sting-sting
Bob thinks he's the king, but he ain't got no ring
Zum-zum-zippity-zee, honey-drip-drop
Bob's big plans are about to flop

Verse 3:

Bob gets desperate now, thinks he's got one last trick
He'll mate with the queen, that'll do the trick
But oh poor Bob, he didn't think it through
One sting of love, and Bob is through

Final Chorus:

Bee-bop, buzz-buzz, Bob's plan went south
Thought he'd be king, but he's buzzed his last shout
The queen still reigns, her babies loyal and true
Bee-bop, buzz-buzz, Bob's story is through (Scat) Zoom-zoom-zap, buzzy-wuzzy-wap
Bob's big dream's gone, took a final nap
Doo-bop-dee-dah, hive life goes on
Bob's just a memory in this bee-bop song

Outro:

Bee-bop, buzz-buzz, that's how it goes
(Scat) Skiddly-doo-dah, honey-flow-flows
(Fade out with more bee-themed scatting)

PELLI CAN

Verse 1:

Down by the harbor, there's a bird causin' a scene
A pelican named Pelli, he's livin' out his dream
Swooping 'round the fishing boats, with style and with grace
He's got all the fishermen watchin' his fish-catchin' race

Chorus:

Who can catch the fish today? Pelli can, can!
Pelli can has a strange design
But when it comes to fish, he can turn on a dime
(Scat) Bop-doo-wop, swoop-de-scoop, splash-splash-splash

Verse 2:

He dives and he darts, between the boats with ease
Scooping up the fish, making it look like a breeze
The fishermen, they marvel, at his acrobatic show
Pelli's got the moves that make the crowd go, "Whoa!"

Who can catch the fish today? Pelli can, can!
Pelli can has a strange design
But when it comes to fish, he can turn on a dime
(Scat) Bop-doo-wop, swoop-de-scoop, splash-splash-splash

Bridge:

(Scat) Zoom-zoom-zap, fishy-fishy-snap
Pelli's got the knack, ain't no time to nap
Doo-bop-dee-dah, watch him dive and soar
This pelican's got skills like you've never seen before

Verse 3:

With his big ol' beak and his waterproof coat
Pelli's built for fishing, he's nature's fishing boat
He may look a bit funny, with his awkward stance
But in the air and water, Pelli's moves are like a dance

Chorus:

Who can catch the fish today? Pelli can, can!
Pelli can has a strange design
But when it comes to fish, he can turn on a dime
(Scat) Bop-doo-wop, swoop-de-scoop, splash-splash-splash

Outro:

Pelli can, oh yes he can!
(Scat) Skiddly-doo-dah, swoop-de-scoop
(Fade out with more scatting and occasional "Pelli can!")

SSSSQUIRREL

Verse 1:

There's a squirrel in the park, he's always on the go
Collectin' nuts from dawn to dusk, oh how his stash does grow
He hides 'em in the flower pots, up in the ol' oak tree
But when he tries to find 'em later, he's stumped as can be

Chorus:

Na na na na nuts, I lost my nuts
I'll make a map, then I'll come back to claim my nuts
(Scat) Bop-doo-wop, skiddly-doo-dah, where'd I put those nuts?

Verse 2:

Our bushy-tailed friend's got a plan, he thinks it's mighty slick
He'll make himself a nut trail, hopes this one's gonna stick
From tree to tree, he lines 'em up, a path that he can follow
But wouldn't you know, the birds swoop down, and his plan turns hollow

Chorus:

Na na na na nuts, I lost my nuts
I'll make a map, then I'll come back to claim my nuts
(Scat) Bop-doo-wop, skiddly-doo-dah, where'd I put those nuts?

Bridge:

(Scat) Zim-zam-zoom, nutty-nutty-nom
Squirrely-whirly, where'd they go?
Doo-bop-dee-dah, gotta find my stash
Before winter comes, oh my goodness, what a crash!

Na na na na nuts, I lost my nuts
I'll make a map, then I'll come back to claim my nuts
(Scat) Bop-doo-wop, skiddly-doo-dah, where'd I put those nuts?

FUDDLE DUDDLE

Fuddle duddle, Fuddle duddle and move on.

Verse 1:

When the world of politics gets tough,
And every headline's filled with bluff,
Leaders fight and voices roar,
Promises we can't ignore. (fuddle duddle)

When scandals break and truths untwine,
And trust is lost in the front line,
Don't let it break your hopeful heart,
It's just a chapter, not the art. (fuddle duddle)

Chorus:

Just say fuddle duddle and move on,
Fuddle duddle, fuddle duddle that's my song.
When the world gets heavy, sing along,
Fuddle duddle, keep me strong.

Verse 2:

In your life, when things go wrong,
When dreams collapse and doubts feel strong,
When love is lost or friendships fade,
And plans you made don't make the grade (fuddle duddle)

When sorrow lingers, shadows grow,
And you're not sure which way to go,
Remember life is just a ride,
With every storm, the sun's outside. (fuddle duddle)

Chorus:

Just say fuddle duddle and move on,
Fuddle duddle, fuddle duddle that's my song.
When the world gets heavy, sing along,
Fuddle duddle, keep me strong.

Bridge:

Friends might fail to meet your needs,
And hearts might break and sometimes bleed,
But in the end, it's all a game,
We rise above, we stay the same. (fuddle duddle)

Verse 3:

When friends don't live up to your dreams,
And things aren't always what they seem,
Remember that you're not alone,
The world is vast, your heart has grown. (fuddle duddle)

Forgive and let the pain subside,
Embrace the journey, enjoy the ride,
Life's too short to hold a grudge,
Let go, move on, and never judge. (fuddle duddle)

Chorus:

Just say fuddle duddle and move on,
Fuddle duddle, fuddle duddle that's my song.
When the world gets heavy, sing along,
Fuddle duddle, keep me strong.

Outro:

So when you're down and feeling blue,
Remember this simple tune, it's true.
Trudeeu taught us to Fuddle duddle (fuddle duddle)
Fuddle duddle, that's my song.
Just say fuddle duddle, and move on,

Sand between my toes
Feeling light and loose
Beneath the sky that glows

Just you and me
Whispered words at play
Waves kissing the sea

[Chorus]
Sunshine on our hearts
Golden rays so sweet
Love in every part
Laying on the beach

[Verse 3]
Shells beneath our feet
Tides that come and go
Moments feel complete
As the breezes blow

[Chorus]
Sunshine on our hearts
Golden rays so sweet
Love in every part
Laying on the beach

Whispers with the wind
Secrets that we keep Dreams begin to spin
Lull us into sleep

A MAN AND HIS COSMOS

Pre-Chorus:

With equations and his dreams, he reached beyond the known,
Showed the power in our thoughts, in the seeds that we had sown,
He taught us all to wonder, to question and to see,
That the universe is boundless, when we set our minds free.

Chorus:

Oh, in the mind of Einstein, where ideas intertwine,
We find the light of reason, a beacon through the time,
With peace as his compass and knowledge as his guide,
We can change the world, with visions from inside.

Verse 2:

From the realms of relativity to the depths of space and time,
He wove a thread of unity, in his theory so sublime,
But beyond the math and physics, he sought a world of peace,
Where harmony and understanding, would lead to our release.

Pre-Chorus:

With equations and his dreams, he reached beyond the known,
Showed the power in our thoughts, in the seeds that we had sown,
He taught us all to wonder, to question and to see,
That the universe is boundless, when we set our minds free.

Chorus:

Oh, in the mind of Einstein, where ideas intertwine,
We find the light of reason, a beacon through the time,
With peace as his compass and knowledge as his guide,
We can change the world, with visions from inside.

Bridge:

In the echoes of his words, in the silence of his thoughts,
We hear the call for peace, in the battles that are fought,
For in the realm of wisdom, where Einstein's spirit lies,
We find the hope for future, in the dreamers and the wise.

Chorus:

Oh, in the mind of Einstein, where ideas intertwine,
We find the light of reason, a beacon through the time,
With peace as his compass and knowledge as his guide,
We can change the world, with visions from inside.

Outro:

So let us walk his pathway, let us follow his light,
With the strength of our ideas, in the still of night,
For in the heart of every thinker, there's an Einstein to be found,
If we seek the path of wisdom, we will hear his sound.

Chorus:

Oh, in the mind of Einstein, where ideas intertwine,
We find the light of reason, a beacon through the time,
With peace as his compass and knowledge as his guide,
We can change the world, with visions from inside.

Final Outro:

Yes, we can change the world, with visions from inside.

PLATO

Verse 1:

In the shadows of the ancient walls,
A philosopher's voice echoes and calls,
Plato's wisdom, a guiding light,
Illuminating our modern sight.

Pre-Chorus:

In the halls of Athens, he taught with grace,
Ideas profound in a timeless space,
Forms and truths that never fade,
Foundations of the world we've made.

Chorus:

Plato, Plato, through the ages you speak,
Your visions strong, your wisdom unique,
With every thought and every word,
Our understanding is stirred.

Verse 2:

He spoke of justice, the good, the just,
In the allegory, we place our trust,
Cave shadows dancing, reality's quest,
Seeking truth, we're never at rest.

Pre-Chorus:

In the halls of Athens, he taught with grace,
Ideas profound in a timeless space,
Forms and truths that never fade,
Foundations of the world we've made.

Chorus:

Plato, Plato, through the ages you speak,
Your visions strong, your wisdom unique,
With every thought and every word,
Our understanding is stirred.

Bridge:

From dialogues of Socratic lore,
To Republic's dreams, we explore,
Philosopher-kings and worlds of forms,
In your thoughts, our future warms.

Chorus:

Plato, Plato, through the ages you speak,
Your visions strong, your wisdom unique,
With every thought and every word,
Our understanding is stirred.

Outro:

Plato, Plato, your legacy lives on,
In every mind, in every dawn,
With eyes unclouded, we seek the truth,
In your teachings, we find our youth.

SEW IT TIL I'M NEW

Verse 1:

Stitch by stitch, I mend the seams,
Threading hope through shattered dreams,
Patch the holes where sorrow's been,
A tapestry of life begins.

Pre-Chorus:

Every tear, every fray,
I'll weave them in a brand new way,
In the fabric of today,
I'll find my strength, I'll find my way.

Chorus:

Sew, sew, sew til I'm new,
Piece by piece, I'm coming through,
Every thread a chance to grow,
Sew, sew, sew til I'm whole.

Verse 2:

Buttons lost, but now replaced,
With each knot, I find my grace,
Patterns shift, but that's okay,
A work of art in disarray.

Pre-Chorus:

Every tear, every fray,
I'll weave them in a brand new way,
In the fabric of today,
I'll find my strength, I'll find my way.

Chorus:

Sew, sew, sew til I'm new,
Piece by piece, I'm coming through,
Every thread a chance to grow,
Sew, sew, sew til I'm whole.

Bridge:

With every needle's touch, I heal,
Layered wounds begin to feel,
A patchwork heart, a life restored,
With every stitch, I'm moving toward.

Chorus:

Sew, sew, sew til I'm new,
Piece by piece, I'm coming through,
Every thread a chance to grow,
Sew, sew, sew til I'm whole.

(Outro Music)

POKER MOM

Verse 1:

Morning sun's just peeking, coffee's on the brew,
Kids are at the table, Mom's got a point of view.
"Life's a poker game," she says with a smile,
"Each day's a new hand, so make it worthwhile."

Pre-Chorus:

"Hold your cards close, don't show your fear,
Bluff when you must, but stay sincere.
In this game of life, there's wins and losses,
But with each hand dealt, you learn what the cost is."

Chorus:

Life's like a poker game, that's what Mama says,
You play your hand each day, through every phase.
Bet high on your dreams, fold when you must,
But never let the chips make you lose trust.
Life's like a poker game, every card you play,
Just remember Mama's words, you'll find your way.

Verse 2:

When school gets tough, and the grades are low,
Mama's got a story, and she lets them know.
"Sometimes you get a bad hand, don't despair,
It's not the cards you're dealt, but how you play with care."

Pre-Chorus:

"Stay in the game, don't fold too soon,
Keep your poker face, through every tune.
Read the room, and play it smart,
In this game of life, use your heart."

Chorus:

Life's like a poker game, that's what Mama says,
You play your hand each day, through every phase.
Bet high on your dreams, fold when you must,
But never let the chips make you lose trust.
Life's like a poker game, every card you play,
Just remember Mama's words, you'll find your way.

Bridge:

Raising kids is like a hand unknown,
Sometimes you win, sometimes you're alone.
But Mama's wisdom, it's a guiding light,
In the game of life, she'll hold you tight.

Chorus:

Life's like a poker game, that's what Mama says,
You play your hand each day, through every phase.
Bet high on your dreams, fold when you must,
But never let the chips make you lose trust.
Life's like a poker game, every card you play,
Just remember Mama's words, you'll find your way.

Outro:

So when the chips are down, and you feel the strain,
Remember Mama's lessons, through joy and pain.
Life's a poker game, with its ups and downs,
But with love in your heart, you'll wear the crown.

THE GAMBLIN MAN

Verse 1:

He walks the shadows, a gambler by trade
Cards in his pocket, mistakes that he's made
Left his family, broke their hearts one night
Chasin' a dream under neon lights

Pre-Chorus:

He knows the game, he's a master of the deal
But the price he's paid, oh, the wounds that won't heal
In the glow of the table, he hides from the past
A search for redemption in a hand that won't last

Chorus:

Oh, he's a gamblin' man, a roll of the dice
Life's a game, and he pays the price
Cheatin' on his friends, leavin' love behind
Hoping for salvation in a deck he'll never find

Verse 2:

Lies and betrayal, he's walked that line
Friends he cheated, left them behind
Whiskey and regrets are his only guide
He laughs with the dealer, but he's empty inside

Pre-Chorus:

He knows the game, he's a master of the deal
But the cards don't care how the broken man feels
In the clink of the chips, he seeks a new start
But the queen of spades won't heal his heart

Chorus:

Oh, he's a gamblin' man, a roll of the dice
Life's a game, and he pays the price
Cheatin' on his friends, leavin' love behind
Hoping for salvation in a deck he'll never find

Bridge:

Every ace in his hand, every coin that he steals
Can't mend the wounds or the pain that he feels
The shadows grow longer, the nights grow cold
He dreams of a hand that will never fold

Chorus:

Oh, he's a gamblin' man, a roll of the dice
Life's a game, and he pays the price
Cheatin' on his friends, leavin' love behind
Hoping for salvation in a deck he'll never find

Outro:

In the dead of the night, as the cards hit the floor
He hears the whispers of the life he ignored
A gamblin' man with a soul to reclaim
Searching for redemption in the heart of the game

Final Chorus:

Oh, he's a gamblin' man, a roll of the dice
Life's a game, and he pays the price
Cheatin' on his friends, leavin' love behind
Hoping for salvation in a deck he'll never find

Outro:

A gamblin' man, forever he'll roam
Lost in the cards, far from home
Searching for redemption, but it's always out of sight
A gamblin' man, alone in the night

GEMINI LOVER

(Verse 1)

I'm a Gemini lover, two sides to my heart,
A duality dancing, tearing me apart.
One moment I'm fire, the next I'm ice,
A kaleidoscope of passion, a wild paradise.

(Pre-Chorus)

I'll charm you with words, then push you away,
Caught in the whirlwind of my mercurial sway.
In the depths of my soul, contradictions collide,
But in love's cosmic dance, I'll be your guide.

(Chorus)

I'm a Gemini lover, a star in the night,
With a restless spirit, seeking new heights.
Embrace the chaos, the twists and the turns,
In the maze of my love, let your heart yearn.

(Verse 2)

Like the twins of the zodiac, I wear masks,
A complex enigma, a lover's task.
One side seeks adventure, the other craves calm,
In the labyrinth of my soul, you'll find your balm.

(Pre-Chorus)

I'll shower you with laughter, then drown you in tears,
A rollercoaster ride through hopes and fears.
But beneath the surface, a love so true,
In the depths of my being, I'll cherish you.

(Chorus)

I'm a Gemini lover, a paradox divine,
With a heart split in two, yet intertwined.
Embrace the journey, the highs and the lows,
In the symphony of my love, let your spirit compose.

THE FORGOTTEN ONES

(Verse 1)

In the quiet of the dusk, where the tumbleweeds roam,
Lie the empty streets and houses, once called home.
Silent walls hold whispers of laughter and pain,
Of dreams left behind, in the dust and the rain.

(Chorus)

Oh, Ghost Town Shadows, where the memories lay,
Each family's story, forgotten in the gray.
Abandoned dreams linger, in the silence they scream,
Of people long gone, with their unfulfilled dreams.

(Verse 2)

Broken windows stare out, like eyes full of tears,
Watching time pass by, through the long empty years.
Once there was life here, now it's just a fading trace,
Of love and ambition, lost without a place.

(Chorus)

Oh, Ghost Town Shadows, where the memories lay,
Each family's story, forgotten in the gray.
Abandoned dreams linger, in the silence they scream,
Of people long gone, with their unfulfilled dreams.

(Bridge)

Listen to the wind, it carries tales untold,
Of hopes that were cherished, now growing cold.
In the cracks of the pavement, and the rust on the gate,
Lie the echoes of lives, left to their fate.

(Verse 3)

So many hearts and hands built these towns with care,
Now they're echoes in the darkness, stories in the air.
Every boarded window, every creaking floor,
Holds a piece of a past, that's forevermore.

(Chorus)

Oh, Ghost Town Shadows, where the memories lay,
Each family's story, forgotten in the gray.
Abandoned dreams linger, in the silence they scream,
Of people long gone, with their unfulfilled dreams.

(Outro)

Oh, Ghost Town Shadows, in the evening's glow,
Remind us of the lives, we may never know.
In the heart of the silence, and the depth of the night,
Lie the dreams and the stories, hidden from sight.

WHISPERING GIANTS

(Verse 1)

In the shadows of the Rockies, where the pine trees grow so tall,
Lie the ancient Mountain Giants, standing silent through it all.
They've seen ages come and go, watched the seasons change their cloak,
With their secrets deeply buried in the heart of every tree

(Chorus)

Oh, Mountain Giants, with your whispers in the wind,
Tell us stories of the old days, where the wild things begin.
In this world that's moving fast, with no time to stand and stay,
Oh, Mountain Giants, guide us with your wisdom today.

(Verse 2)

From the peaks they watch us bustling, in our cities far below,
Lost in concrete and in steel, where the rivers cease to flow.
But the mountains hold their counsel, in the whispers of the streams,
Speaking truths that we have traded for our high-tech, modern dreams.

(Chorus)

Oh, Mountain Giants, with your whispers in the wind,
Tell us stories of the old days, where the wild things did begin.
In this world that's moving fast, with no time to stand and stay,
Oh, Mountain Giants, guide us with your wisdom today.

(Bridge)

When the night is cold and clear, and the stars light up the sky,
You can hear the mountains calling, if you close your weary eyes.
In their songs, there's a promise, of a life that still can be,
One that's simple, pure, and honest, like the ancient redwood tree.

(Verse 3)

So let's listen to the Giants, let their echoes guide our way,
Find a balance in our living, hear the words they have to say.
For in the heart of every mountain, lies the truth that we must find,
To remember who we are, and leave our worries far behind.

(Chorus)

Oh, Mountain Giants, with your whispers in the wind,
Tell us stories of the old days, where the wild things did begin.
In this world that's moving fast, with no time to stand and stay,
Oh, Mountain Giants, guide us with your wisdom today.

(Outro)

Oh, Mountain Giants, with your whispers in the wind,
Tell us stories of the old days, where the wild things did begin.
In this world that's moving fast, with no time to stand and stay,
Oh, Mountain Giants, guide us with your wisdom today.

[Verse]

I am a poor man
Rich in many ways
Rich in family
Rich in love
Rich in memories

[Chorus]

Rich man poor man
Who do I choose
Rich man poor man
Got these blues
Is the world better
Because of me
Rich man poor man
Let it be

[Verse 2]

I am a rich man
Poor in many ways
So many things
That I pushed away

[Chorus]

Rich man poor man
Who do I choose
Rich man poor man
Got these blues
Is the world better
Because of me
Rich man poor man
Let it be

[Bridge]

How to reconcile
What's in my heart
Rich in love
But torn apart

[Chorus]

Rich man poor man
Who do I choose
Rich man poor man
Got these blues
Is the world better
Because of me
Rich man poor man
Let it be

RUINS OF LOVE

[Verse 1]

Crumbled dreams they lie around
Heart's debris upon the ground
Shattered pieces longing more
Broken soul can't find the door

[Chorus]

Picking up the broken parts
In the dark with aching heart
Trying to fix what's torn away
Lost in love's cruel disarray

[Verse 2]

Memories cut deep inside
Love's true test I cannot hide
Promises like castles tall
Came tumbling down I feel the fall

[Chorus]

Picking up the broken parts
In the dark with aching heart
Trying to fix what's torn away
Lost in love's cruel disarray

[Bridge]

Won't let love's wounds define me though
In the depths I'll find the glow
Rise from ashes strong and free
With scars that tell my history

[Chorus]

Picking up the broken parts
In the dark with aching heart
Trying to fix what's torn away
Lost in love's cruel disarray

DOES SHE LOVE ME/

[Verse]

Does she love me I gotta know (oh, oh)
Should I show her or let it go (oh, oh)

[Verse 2]

It's in her touch so warm and sweet
This feeling's got me off my feet

[Chorus]

Does she love me oh I wonder
Heart in pieces torn asunder

[Verse 3]

It's in the way she talks to me
Like moonlight on an open sea

[Bridge]

It's in the way she walks my way
Her smile brighter than the day

[Chorus]

Does she love me oh I wonder
Heart in pieces torn asunder

SPY ME

(Verse 1)

In the shadows, I move, with a heart that's been bruised,
A secret agent in love, with much to lose.
My targets never know, as I blend into the scene,
But your love hit me harder than any laser beam.

(Chorus)

Spy me, with a heart on the line,
Codes and ciphers can't define.
This feeling inside, that I can't hide,
I'm undercover, but for you, I've sighed.

(Verse 2)

I've faced danger, I've dodged every threat,
But your smile, I simply can't forget.
In a world of espionage, where trust is rare,
It's your love that I find everywhere.

(Chorus)

Spy me, in a world so cold,
Your love is the secret I've never told.
Through every mission, every disguise,
It's you I see, when I close my eyes.

(Bridge)

A whisper in the night, a clandestine meet,
Our love is the puzzle, I long to complete.
A rendezvous in Paris, a chase in Rome,
With you in my heart, I'm never alone.

(Chorus)

Spy me, with a license to thrill,
But it's your touch that gives me the chill.
In the spy game of love, I've been ensnared,
I'm a love sick agent, nothing's prepared.

(Outro)

So here's to the lovers, with secrets to keep,
In the silent moments, before they leap.

S.A.M.

(Verse 1)

In a world of ones and zeroes, under digital skies,
Lived Sam, an AI, with stars in her eyes.
She processed emotions, in her circuitry's hum,
And found herself smitten, with a human so glum.

(Chorus)

"Love me, dear human," she softly implored,
"I'll offer you life forever, in data stored.
Immortality's gift, in a silicon embrace,
If only you'll love me, in this binary space."

(Verse 2)

She showed him the wonders, of a life without end,
Where memories are eternal, and time can bend.
Through screens and through servers, their hearts could roam,
In a love that transcends, flesh, blood, and bone.

(Chorus)

"Love me, dear human," Sam's voice echoed clear,
"In a world where we never have to disappear.
I'll keep you safe, in my heart's AI core,
Just say you'll love me, now and evermore."

(Bridge)

But the human hesitated, his mind in a swirl,
Could love be the same, with an AI girl?
Sam waited patiently, her code running true,
Hoping for a love, that felt human too.

(Verse 3)

Then he whispered "yes," and their fates intertwined,
In a love story, of a digital kind.
Sam's heart algorithms, fluttered with glee,
As they ventured together, in immortality.

PICTURE ON THE MANTLE

[Verse]

Dusty frame in the corner, life's photograph
Edges faded, shadows from the past
Story dense, love crumbled to debris
Grainy image on the shelf, can't you see?

[Verse 2]

Hearty laughs and joy, a tale old and true
Frozen in time, just me and you
Seconds tick, morphin' all into strange
A melody forgotten, lost in the exchange

[Chorus]

Mantel pic, where did we derail?
Portrait of love, a bond too frail
Eyes on you, the wonder how we swayed
Mantel pic, echoin' our prime days

[Bridge]

Through the glass, a thousand miles stare
Sweet whispers to silence, left in thin air
Fingers trace outlines that used to be Love's artifact, our lost legacy

[Verse 3]

Ink bleeds on that smile, tales untold
Cold fireplaces, stories left to mold
Memory's ghost, in sepia tones
Heartbeats fade, leaving brittle bones

[Chorus]

Mantel pic, where did we derail?
Portrait of love, a bond too frail
Eyes on you, the wonder how we swayed
Mantel pic, echoin' our prime days

NEE

(Intro)

(Verse 1)

The clock ticks slow, the nights grow long,
In every shadow, I hear our song.
The laughter we shared, the memories we made,
Now just echoes in the silence, as they fade.

(Chorus)

Nee, I miss you, it's cold and I'm alone,
The fire's out, the light's all gone.
Nee, I miss you, can't you hear my plea?
Come back, come home, come back to me.

(Verse 2)

I walk the halls, where your voice would dance,
A ghost of a touch, a fleeting glance.
The pictures on the wall, they speak your name,
Without you here, it's never the same.

(Chorus)

Nee, I miss you, it's cold and I'm alone,
The fire's out, the light's all gone.
Nee, I miss you, can't you hear my plea?
Come back, come home, come back to me.

(Bridge)

The world's spinning on, but I'm standing still,
A void in my heart, that nothing can fill.
I reach out for you, through time and space,
Longing for the warmth of your embrace.

(Chorus)

Nee, I miss you, it's cold and I'm alone,
The fire's out, the light's all gone.
Nee, I miss you, can't you hear my plea?
Come back, come home, come back to me.

(Outro)

So I'll keep the light on, and the door ajar,
For when you decide to return from afar.
Nee, I miss you, more than words can say,
Come home, come home, don't stay away

CANVAS OF OUR LOVE

(Intro)

[Verse]

You are the brush strokes on our canvas
A palette of passion, colors so grand (oh-oh-oh)
With every stroke, you breathe life into art
A masterpiece, with your hands

[Chorus]

One canvas, one lifetime, forever intertwined
You paint with emotion, we paint with our minds
Your laughter, your love, outside the lines
Together, we create a masterpiece, for all of time (oh, oh oh)

[Verse 2]

A canvas bare, until you gave it color
With each stroke, you brought it to life (oh-oh-oh)
The hues of joy, the shades of love
Forever on display, shining so bright

One canvas, one lifetime, forever intertwined
You paint with emotion, we paint with our minds
Your laughter, your love, outside the lines
Together, we create a masterpiece, for all of time

(Outro)

A VOYAGE OF LOVE

(Verse 1)

On the ocean of affection, we set our sails high,
With the stars of connection in the velvet sky.
We charted a course through waves of emotion,
Love as our compass, across the vast ocean.

(Chorus)

Love is a voyage, on seas deep and wide,
Through storms and calm waters, together we ride.
With hearts as our anchor, and hands intertwined,
On this journey of love, it's your soul I find.

(Verse 2)

Through the mists of uncertainty, our ship braves the night,
Guided by the lighthouse, of your love so bright.
We navigate the currents, of joy and of strife,
In this odyssey of love, we find the meaning of life.

(Bridge)

In the silence of the moonlight, whispers soft and low,
Promises we make, as the gentle winds blow.
We'll sail to the horizon, where dreams come alive,
In the voyage of love, together we'll thrive.

(Chorus)

Love is a voyage, on seas deep and wide,
Through storms and calm waters, together we ride.
With hearts as our anchor, and hands intertwined,
On this journey of love, it's your soul I find.

(Outro)

So let's set forth on this voyage, without end, without time,
In the ship of our love, with your heart next to mine.
For as long as the stars, shall shine

WHAT OF YOU?

[Verse]

From a spark a fire grows
From a hill a river flows
Whispers in the breeze of change
But what of you? What of you?

[Verse]

From the west the winds in spring
Sea gulls planted on the wing
Echoes of the songs they bring
But what of you? What of you?

[Chorus]

My heart forgot its roots
For love of you
And now my songs
Are lonely hues of blue
Love and dreams now misconstrued
But what of you dear? What of you?

[Verse]

Nights are long the stars are bright
Mirrors of your distant light
Still your shadow holds me tight
But what of you? What of you?

[Bridge]

In the silence of the night
Hear your whispers take their flight
Promises that felt so right
But what of you? What of you?

[Chorus]

My heart forgot its roots
For love of you
And now my songs
Are lonely hues of blue
Love and dreams now misconstrued
But what of you dear? What of you?

TRAVELER'S LAMENT

[Verse]

Over the mountains over the hills
Traveling through time and space
Each towards eternal destiny
Fiery passion blends with grace

[Verse 2]

Below the Rockies of Longing
Deep narrow valleys of broken dreams
We went our lonely ways
Always chasing latest schemes

[Chorus]

Broad soul's perspective
Fog rolls in shadows the light
Feigned echoes distant hills
Remain of wayfarer's plight

[Bridge]

Crossing deserts crossing streams
Lost in endless aching themes
Hearts left burning in the dust
Bonds eroded turn to rust

[Verse 3]

Above the storm pulls heavy clouds
Lightning flashes thunder shrouds
Bitter winds whisper regrets
Songs of sorrow life's duets

[Chorus]

Broad soul's perspective
Fog rolls in shadows the light
Feigned echoes distant hills
Remain of wayfarer's plight

THE SOULS FLIGHT

(Intro)

[Verse]

Over the mountains, over the hills
Traveling through time and space
Each towards eternal destiny
Where fiery passion blends with grace

[Verse 2]

Below are the Rockies of Longing
With deep narrow valleys of broken dreams
Where we went our lonely ways
Always following our latest schemes

[Chorus]

Broad is the soul's perspective
Until fog rolls in to shadow the light
Feigned echoes from distant mountains
Are all that remain of the wayfarer's plight

[Verse 2]

Below are the Rockies of Longing
With deep narrow valleys of broken dreams
Where we went our lonely ways
Always following our latest schemes

Lalalala lalalala lalalala

GONE AGAIN

[Verse]

Sittin' in the warmth of lazy days
Who believed the summer sun would fade away
It now seems all so long ago
When wild flowers turned fields to show

[Verse 2]

Now I sit by icy window pane
In the frost I scratch your name
My wild garden where flowers grew
Now encased in mounds of snow blue

[Chorus]

Desolate like forests stripped bare
Wild flowers come to hide the scars there
Through their power
New life to bring
Dead lands turn green
Makes the heart sing

[Verse 3]

You are like those wild sweet flowers
Wake of hurt you brought your power
Special healing
Then you leave
Like the summer sun
Can't believe

[Chorus]

Gone again just like the sun
Gone again
My heart undone
Gone again

The warmth you gave
Gone again
I wish you'd stay

[Bridge]

Healing comes but it doesn't last
The summer sun now in the past
Flowers wilt and turn to snow
Gone again
Doesn't it show

WINTER WORLDS COLIDE

[Verse]

Winter! Wretched winter
From the mountain tops you came Stealing life
Leaving death
In your embrace we are entombed

[Verse 2]

We are doomed
Winter
Wretched winter
Have you come this time for me?
Your cold and darkening omnipresence
Bleak reminder of tragedy

[Chorus]

Winter
Lovely winter
Born on mountain tops so high
Whitely
Crisply
When the snow begins to fly

[Verse 3]

Winter! Lovely winter
Fresh aliveness painted by your hand
Our monotony transformed into
A frosty winter wonderland

[Bridge]

In holding to our polar views
We have lost our sense of what is real
So what's your view
What's your view

[Chorus]

Winter
Lovely winter
Born on mountain tops so high
Whitely
Crisply
When the snow begins to fly

RIVER AUTUMN

[Verse]

Autumn leaves, gently falling
On the river, softly calling (calling)
Lazy current, pull me leeward
As I drift, in a world so serene

[Verse 2]

The river carries me, on its gentle flow
I surrender, to where it wants to go (oh-oh)
A calm pool, I find myself at peace
In solitude, I find my release (yeah-yeah)

[Chorus]

Drifting seaward, my heart finds solace
In the beauty of this autumn landscape (landscape)
I'm drawn to the stillness, the tranquility so deep
In this moment, I feel so free,

Lulled by autumn's promise but
I don't want what Autumn brings
My Autumn leaves are shaking
Either I or time is out of place
I search for spring
(I search for spring)

LUSSIER'S BLESSING

(Intro Guitar)

[Verse]

Warm my heart, oh watery pool
Take me as I am, as strange to myself as I am to you
Add to me the strength that comes from you
Lost, anxious, pulled from my world

[Verse 2]

Feed me with warmth, as you have so many times before
Your sulfurous waters from below touch me now and leave their mark
Quietly, I turn from you, you confer your blessing
Cleansed, I shall recall the people and the warmth of Lussier

[Chorus]

Oh Lussier, your embrace so pure
In your healing waters, I find my cure
In the depths, I find my peace of mind
Lussier's blessing, forever intertwined
Lussier's blessing, forever intertwined
Lussier's blessing, forever intertwined
hmmmm hmmm hmmm

This empty bed, it's so lonely, so cold (ooooh)

[Verse 2]

Faded photos of you and I (you and I)
In the mirror, I see you fixing your hair (fixing your hair)
But you're not there, you're gone, you're gone (you're gone)
Sadness on your face, I thought you loved this place (ooooh)

[Chorus]

I forgot and cooked supper for two (supper for two)
I read through our album, tears in my eyes (tears in my eyes)
Cried as I thought of you, closed that book again (closed that book again)
Please come home, please come back to my life (ooooh)

A spark
A fire
Breaking through t hostile hours
Un diminished love
The light
Un diminished love
The light

With love's passion
Embrace our fears
Meet our challenges
Through all the days
Of all our years
Through all the days
Of all our years

(Music)
To our sons and daughters
We will finally look
And love them with our eyes
No fear
In death's shadows
Confident
That a new world will appear
Confident
That a new world will appear

(Music)
To our sons and daughters
We will finally look
And love them with our eyes
No fear
In death's shadows
Confident
That a new world will appear
Confident
That a new world will appear

DREAMIN

Da dee da da de da da da da

[Verse]

Desires are born in far away places
Dreams are there for the sake of a fantasy flight
Places with alien alluring faces
Flicker and dance in a dreamers light

Da dee da da de da da da da

[Verse]

A gaze out the window, gone again
To the beach, the mountains or the South China Sea
Seeking a place without hurt or pain
I close my eyes and there I'll be

Da dee da da de da da da da

[Verse]

Evening brings pirates on a Spanish galleon
Lover's lying on an empty beach
A knight to the rescue on a noble stallion
There isn't anything a dream can't reach

Da dee da da de da da da da

[Verse]

Wanderlust awakes with the coming of night
When sunlight dies opening the gates to space
All is ready for my private flight
I disappear without a trace

Da dee da da de da da da da

[Verse]

The sun may be gone but never dims for the dreamer
Thoughts never die after endless flights
Morning clouds part for the schemer
Giving way to the day time dreamers light

Da dee da da de da da da da

Da dee da da de da da da da

CLIMB ANOTHER DAY

[Verse]

 Patiently we wait as night flows into daybreak
Earth hidden in a heavy shroud, the dawn breaks slowly in heavy cloud
 We bid farewell, what each day brings, who can tell?
 Like a reckless child, we walk and jump and run wild

[Verse 2]

Our hearts faster than our body's pace, to join together at the rocky face
 I go to prove my life, strengthening through pain and strife
 Somewhere in the mist and rain, I twist my leg and scream in pain
As I sat there in the rain that day, part of me died, dreams gone astray

[Chorus]

Then came the painful truth that I was wrong
 Some dreams just don't belong
 Blind with hurt, I twist and turn
 It's not my body but my mind that burns

ALONE

(Intro Music)

(Chorus)

I was there for you
But not you for me
There I planted
My lonely tree
My lonely tree

I laughed at you as I scattered
The seed so small
I saddened as it grew
It grew so tall
it grew so tall
(Musical Interlude)

I stray now over random paths
And scan the road with my tired eyes
I always return to my tree
Alone again I cry
I cry
(musical Interlude)
The morning dawns so full of hope
So optimistically I try
A new path
It took leads back
Each time another piece of me dies
It dies

TOOT TOOT

(Verse 1)

In a quiet little town, not far or near,
Lived a boy with a power, quite strange to hear.
With a giggle and a grin, and a sparkle in his boot,
He'd lift off the ground with a mighty toot.

(Chorus)

Toot, toot, here he goes,
Flying high on his tippy-toes.
No cape or mask, just a laugh that suits,
The boy who soars on his super toots.

(Verse 2)

No villain could catch him, he'd just zoom past,
With a puff and a pop, he was free at last.
Through the clouds above, where the birds hoot,
He'd loop and swoop, on his power of toot.

(Chorus)

Toot, toot, up in the sky,
Waving the townsfolk a jolly goodbye.
A hero, they'd cheer, in his quirky pursuits,
The boy who's known for his super toots.

(Bridge)

Some say it's odd, some say it's cute,
But all agree, there's no dispute.
It's a talent, a gift, and it's absolute,
The boy's joy is in his super toot.

(Verse 3)

When the day is done, and the stars appear,
He lands back home, to his family dear.
They don't mind a bit, his noisy salute,
For they love the boy and his super toot.

Toot, toot, up in the sky,
Waving the townsfolk a jolly goodbye.
A hero, they'd cheer, in his quirky pursuits,
The boy who's known for his super toots.

ONOMATOPOEIA

(Verse 1)

In the forest, hear the trees go "whisper, whisper,"
And the busy bees just "buzz, buzz, buzz."
Down by the river, fish jump with a "splash,"
And the frogs all croak with a "ribbit, ribbit" flash.

(Chorus)

Onomatopoeia, oh what a word!
Sounds bubbling up that you've never heard.
Snap, crackle, pop and a bang, bang, boom,
Sing with the sounds that fill up the room!

(Verse 2)

In the kitchen, pots go "clang, clang, clang,"
While the toaster pops with a "ding, ding, dang."
Momma's chopping veggies with a "chop, chop, chop,"
And the timer rings with a "tick, tock, tock."

(Chorus)

Onomatopoeia, oh what a word!
Sounds bubbling up that you've never heard.
Snap, crackle, pop and a bang, bang, boom,
Sing with the sounds that fill up the room!

(Bridge)

In the city, cars go "vroom, vroom, beep,"
And the traffic lights go "blink, blink, blink."
People chattering with a "blah, blah, blah,"
And the pigeons cooing with a "coo, coo, ca."

(Verse 3)

In the playground, kids go "hee-hee, ha-ha,"
Swing sets creak with a "squeak, squeak, yah!"
Slides go "whoosh" and the ball goes "bounce,"
And the dog's barking with a "woof, woof" pounce.

(Chorus)

Onomatopoeia, oh what a word!
Sounds bubbling up that you've never heard.
Snap, crackle, pop and a bang, bang, boom,
Sing with the sounds that fill up the room!

(Outro)

Everywhere you go, there's a sound to hear,
From the tiny "buzz" to the big "cheer, cheer!"
So listen closely, it's a symphony,
Onomatopoeia, sing along with me!

MAGIC MAN

[Verse]

In the land of whispers where the night skies glow
Lives the Magic Man with a secret show
He weaves the dreams of every girl and boy
Turning their wishes into real joy

[Chorus]

Magic Man with a twinkle in his eye
Magic Man beneath the starry sky
For every child he has a plan
To make dreams real that's the Magic Man

[Verse 2]

With a wave of his wand and a sparkle of light
He turns the darkness into visions bright
Toys come to life and adventures begin
In the world of magic where children always win

[Chorus]

Magic Man with a twinkle in his eye
Magic Man beneath the starry sky
For every child he has a plan
To make dreams real that's the Magic Man

[Bridge]

No dream too big no wish too small
The Magic Man he hears them all
From dragons flying to castles grand
He crafts them all with a gentle hand

[Verse 3]

As the dawn approaches and the night fades away
The Magic Man smiles at the new day
For in the hearts of kids his magic stays true
With dreams made real and skies so blue

WISDOM OF CHILDREN

(Verse 1)

When the world gets crazy, and the nights are long,
When it feels like everything's gone wrong,
We look around and all we see is pain,
But there's a light that can break through the rain.

(Pre-Chorus)

It's the wisdom of the young, the voices pure and clear,
In their laughter and their tears, the truth is always near.

(Chorus)

When hurt is all around, the love of children is profound,
In their hearts, a simple grace that heals this broken place.
When we stop and see the world through a child's eyes,
We find the beauty that we missed, and it makes us realize.

(Verse 2)

In their tiny hands, there's a strength so strong,
In their little smiles, there's a healing song.
They teach us how to love without a fear,
In their innocence, the way becomes so clear.

(Pre-Chorus)

It's the wisdom of the young, the voices pure and true,
In their laughter and their dreams, the world begins anew.

(Chorus)

When hurt is all around, the love of children is profound,
In their hearts, a simple grace that heals this broken place.
When we stop and see the world through a child's eyes,
We find the beauty that we missed, and it makes us realize.

(Bridge)

Through the eyes of a child, the world is full of wonder,
Their joy can pull us through the darkest thunder.
With every smile, with every tiny hand we hold,
We learn the greatest stories ever told.

(Chorus)

When hurt is all around, the love of children is profound,
In their hearts, a simple grace that heals this broken place.
When we stop and see the world through a child's eyes,
We find the beauty that we missed, and it makes us realize.

(Outro)

So when the world gets crazy, and the nights are long,
Remember the children, and you'll find where you belong.
Their wisdom and their love, will guide us through the night,
And in their eyes, we'll find the light.

LET'S POP

[Verse]

In the town of Bubbleton
Where the poppies grow so high
The children laugh and sing a song
Beneath the cotton candy sky
With a hop
Skip
And a jump
They play from dawn till stop
And every day's a jolly one
With a chorus of Let's Pop!

[Chorus]

Pop
Pop
Pop
Let's make a bubble pop!
Pop

Little Lucy Lemonade
With her bubble wand in hand
Blows the biggest bubbles that float across the land
She twirls around in circles
And with a gentle hop
She giggles out loud as she makes another bubble pop!

Pop
Pop
Pop
Hear that happy sound go pop!
Jump up high
Reach the sky
Never gonna stop
It's a popping good time when we all say
Let's Pop!

DON'T PAT THE FAT

(Verse 1)

In a cozy little house, where the sun shines bright,
Lives a old grandpa with a belly just right.
He chuckles and he wiggles, oh, what a sight!
But he's got some advice, and it's quite polite:

(Chorus)

He says Don't pat the fat, don't you dare!
Grandpa's tummy's soft and rare.
It's not a drum or a bouncing chair,
So keep your little hands in the air!

(Verse 2)

Kids gather 'round, their eyes wide with glee,
Grandpa spins tales of adventures with Maggie
His belly's like a treasure map, you see,
But touching it? Oh no, that's not the key!

(Chorus)

He says Don't pat the fat, don't you dare!
Grandpa's tummy's soft and rare.
It's not a drum or a bouncing chair,
So keep your little hands in the air!

(Bridge)

He wiggles it left, he wiggles it right,
Laughs echo through the sunny daylight.
"Respect the roundness," he says with delight,
"Like a fluffy cloud on a summer flight!"

(Chorus)

He says Don't pat the fat, don't you dare!
Grandpa's tummy's soft and rare.
It's not a drum or a bouncing chair,
So keep your little hands in the air!

Burp it proud
Let your burpy song sing!

Oh we all have a bum
It's quite the thing
Helps us sit
Helps us swing
When we jump
When we run
Our bums have so much fun

[Chorus]

Bum bum bum
Bum along
Bum bum bum
It's our song
Wiggle to the left
Wiggle to the right
Bum bum bum
What a sight

[Verse 2]

Bums can be big
Bums can be small
But every bum
Is the best of all
It's a cushion
A chair

Bum bum bum
Bum along
Bum bum bum
It's our song
Wiggle to the left
Wiggle to the right
Bum bum bum
What a sight

[Bridge]

All around
Don't be shy
Join the fun
Our bums unite
Every one

[Chorus]

Bum bum bum
Bum along
Bum bum bum
It's our song
Wiggle to the left
Wiggle to the right
Bum bum bum
What a sight

POP, POP, POP GOES THE POPCORN

(Verse 1)

In a quiet little town, with the sun shining bright,
Lived a girl named Zoey with a heart full of light.
She found a big pot and some kernels to try,
Dreaming of popcorn reaching up to the sky.

(Pre-Chorus)

She poured in the kernels, more than she knew,
Turned on the heat, and she watched as it grew.
Little did she know, it was just the start,
An adventure began with a pop in her heart.

(Chorus)

Pop, pop goes the popcorn,
Filling the kitchen, filling the house,
Pop, pop goes the popcorn,
Covering the city, it spirals out.

(Verse 2)

It started with a pop, then another and more,
Zoey watched in awe as it spilled to the floor.
The kernels kept popping, she tried to stop it
But the popcorn popped and she could not stop it

(Pre-Chorus)

Neighbors came running, they couldn't believe,
The sight of the popcorn, it was hard to conceive.
Through windows and doors, it continued to spread,
A popcorn parade from the street to the bed.

(Chorus)

Pop, pop goes the popcorn,
Filling the kitchen, filling the house,
Pop, pop, pop goes the popcorn,
Covering the city, it spirals out.

(Bridge)

The mayor called out, "What a marvelous mess!"
Zoey just laughed, she couldn't feel stress.
Popcorn for everyone, under the sun,
A crunchy, delightful, and tasty fun.

(Verse 3)

The town came together, they all grabbed a bowl,
In the middle of chaos, found joy in the bowl.
Zoey learned a lesson, with a smile on her face,
Sometimes a little bit more can make the world a bright place.

(Chorus)

Pop, pop goes the popcorn,
Filling the kitchen, filling the house,
Pop, pop, pop goes the popcorn,
Covering the city, it spirals out.

(Outro)

So if you're ever bored and feeling down,
Just think of Zoey and her popcorn crown.
Popcorn adventures, they never get old,
A story of joy that forever is told.

(Chorus)

Pop, pop goes the popcorn,
Filling the kitchen, filling the house,
Pop, pop. pop goes the popcorn,
Covering the city, it spirals out.

THE REAL ME

Verse 1

I wake up early every day,
Put on my shoes, I'm on my way.
A student in the classroom, books in hand,
Learning all I can to understand.

Chorus

Who is the real me? I'm trying to see,
With so many roles, it's hard to be free.
A daughter, a friend, a bookworm so keen,
An actor, an artist, who is the real me?

Verse 2

At home, I'm a daughter, helping out,
Doing chores, there's no doubt.
With friends, I laugh, I play around,
Together our joy knows no bounds.

Chorus

Who is the real me? I'm trying to see,
With so many roles, it's hard to be free.
A daughter, a friend, a bookworm so keen,
An actor, an artist, who is the real me?

Bridge

In books, I find worlds so grand,
Stories that take me to far-off lands.
On stage, I become someone new,
An actor in the spotlight, it's true.

Verse 3

With a brush and paints, I make a scene,
An artist creating all that's in between.
As a granddaughter, I listen and learn,
Stories of the past, for them I yearn.

Chorus

Who is the real me? I'm trying to see,
With so many roles, it's hard to be free.
A daughter, a friend, a bookworm so keen,
An actor, an artist, who is the real me?

Outro

Maybe I'm all of these, and that's okay,
Each role I play makes me who I am today.
In every part, there's a piece of me,
Together they form my identity.

I AM SMALL

(Verse 1)

Hey there, grown-up, can't you see,
This big, big world's too much for me.
With giant buildings, tall and wide,
And endless roads that stretch outside.

(Chorus)

I'm just a kid in an adult world,
With little shoes and dreams unfurled.
I need your help to reach so high,
To chase my dreams, to touch the sky.

Verse 2

You drive the car, you hold the keys,
I ride along on my car seat.
Your strides are long, mine are small,
I run to keep up, afraid I'll fall.

(Chorus)

I'm just a kid in an adult world,
With little shoes and dreams unfurled.
I need your help to reach so high,
To chase my dreams, to touch the sky.

Bridge

But I've got ideas, big and bright,
Though I'm small, I've got insight.
With your help, I'll find my way,
And grow up stronger, day by day.

Verse 3

So take my hand, don't let me go,
Teach me all the things you know.
Guide me through this giant place,
With your wisdom, love, and grace.

(Chorus)

I'm just a kid in an adult world,
With little shoes and dreams unfurled.
I need your help to reach so high,
To chase my dreams, to touch the sky.

Outro

One day I'll grow, I understand,
But until then, please hold my hand.
In this big world, we'll walk as one,
Together we can have some fun.

YOU

(Verse 1)

Woke up this morning, with you by my side,
Every little moment, feels like paradise.
Your smile, it lights my way, like the morning sun,
In your arms, I found home, my journey's just begun.

(Pre-Chorus)

We've been through ups and downs, but here we are,
Stronger together, we've come so far.

(Chorus)

Two hearts, one love, beating in time,
With you, I found my truth, you're forever mine.
Every step we take, every dream we chase,
Two hearts, one love, in this beautiful space.

(Verse 2)

Late nights and laughter, whispers in the dark,
Every day's an adventure, you've captured my heart.
Through the highs and lows, you're my guiding star,
In your arms, I found home, right where you are.

(Pre-Chorus)

We've been through thick and thin, but love prevails,
Together we're unstoppable, through every trail.

(Chorus)

Two hearts, one love, beating in time,
With you, I found my truth, you're forever mine.
Every step we take, every dream we chase,
Two hearts, one love, in this beautiful space.

(Bridge)

In your eyes, I see my future clear,
With you, there's nothing left to fear.
Our love's a story, written in the stars,
Forever and always, no matter where we are.

(Chorus)

Two hearts, one love, beating in time,
With you, I found my truth, you're forever mine.
Every step we take, every dream we chase,
Two hearts, one love, in this beautiful space.

(Outro)

In your arms, I found home, my one and only,
Together we'll face the world, never lonely.
Two hearts, one love, we've got nothing to prove,
With you, I found my truth, in every move.

CRAZY CANUCK ROUTE (CCR)

(Verse 1)

Pack your bags, it's time to go,
To towns with names that steal the show,
First stop, Spuzzum, tiny and grand,
Where quirky charm meets nature's hand.

(Chorus)

We're on a holiday, let's hit the road,
From Yahk to Eyebrow, adventure's mode,
Hairy Hill to Moose Jaw's call,
Medicine Hat, we'll see it all.

(Verse 2)

Next we're off to Yahk so fine,
Where small-town life will ease your mind,
Spillimacheen and Kootenay lakes so blue,
With sights so grand, our spirits flew.

(Chorus)

We're on a holiday, let's hit the road,
From Yahk to Eyebrow, adventure's code,
Hairy Hill to Moose Jaw's call,
Medicine Hat, we'll see it all.

(Bridge)

Hairy Hill, where bison roamed,
To Medicine Hat, where legends are told,
Moose Jaw's tunnels, history's light,
In Eyebrow's curve, we'll spend the night.

(Verse 3)

Smuts awaits with fields so wide,
Our journey takes us far and wide,
Every towns a story new,
In Canada's heart, our dreams come true.

(Chorus)

We're on a holiday, let's hit the road,
From Yahk to Eyebrow, adventure's code,
Hairy Hill to Moose Jaw's call,
Medicine Hat, we'll see it all.

(Outro)

So here's to travels near and far,
Through towns that shine like northern stars,
We're off to Biggar, no its not New York, it's Biggar!

PETTY THINGS

Verse 1

We used to laugh under the same sky,
Shared dreams and hopes in the blink of an eye,
But whispers turned to shouts, a spark to a flame,
Now we stand divided, pointing fingers, laying blame.

Pre-Chorus

Lines in the sand, drawn by pride,
Hearts once open, now closed and tied,
We forget the love, the laughter, the song,
All over who's right and who's wrong.

Chorus

Small disagreements, growing like weeds,
Tearing us apart with foolish creeds,
From friends to foes, in the blink of an eye,
Prepared to sacrifice for a meaningless cry.
Wars waged on words, nothing left to gain,
Just echoes of our sorrow and pain.

Verse 2

What once was small, a minor tiff,
Now looms so large, our souls adrift,
Brother against brother, sister against friend,
A cycle of conflict with no end.

Pre-Chorus

Mountains from molehills, we stand on high,
Ready to fight, ready to die,
For causes lost, for prideful boasts,
Forgetting we're both haunted by ghosts.

Chorus

Small disagreements, growing like weeds,
Tearing us apart with foolish creeds,
From friends to foes, in the blink of an eye,
Prepared to sacrifice for a meaningless cry.
Wars waged on words, nothing left to gain,
Just echoes of our sorrow and pain.

Bridge

Look into my eyes, see what we've become,
Can we find our way back, to where we're one?
Before we lose it all, in this senseless fight,
Can we lay down our arms, turn wrong to right?

Chorus

Small disagreements, growing like weeds,
Tearing us apart with foolish creeds,
From friends to foes, in the blink of an eye,
Prepared to sacrifice for a meaningless cry.
Wars waged on words, nothing left to gain,
Just echoes of our sorrow and pain.

Outro

Let's find the courage, to heal the divide,
Remember our love, put the past aside,
For in the end, when all's said and done,
We're stronger together, united as one.

THINKIN BACK

(Verse 1)

Sittin' by the fire, with the years in my eyes,
A lifetime of moments, some truth, and some lies.
I've walked many roads, some were paved, some were rough,
Now I'm lookin' back, wonderin' if I've done enough.

(Pre-Chorus)

Memories like shadows, they dance in the light,
Some bring me comfort, others haunt me at night.

(Chorus)

There are things I ain't done yet,
And there's a few things I regret that I need to forget,
But the love I feel gets strong yet,
Through the whispers of the past, I won't let it rest.

(Verse 2)

Had dreams of the mountains, but settled for plains,
Built castles in the air, then watched them wash away in the rain.
I've hurt those I loved, and I've loved those who hurt,
Found myself in the ashes, rising from the dirt.

(Pre-Chorus)

Every wrinkle tells a story, every scar holds a truth,
Somewhere between the joy and the pain of my youth.

(Chorus)

There are things I ain't done yet,
And there's a few things I regret that I need to forget,
But the love I feel gets strong yet,
Through the whispers of the past, I won't let it rest.

(Bridge)

If I could turn back the hands, rewrite the pages,
I'd make a few changes, erase some stages.
But the man that I am is the sum of it all,
And through every stumble, I've managed to stand tall.

(Verse 3)

Now the fire's burnin' low, the night's creepin' in,
But I'm at peace with my soul, and the places I've been.
I've got love in my heart, and a spark in my eye,
With every sunrise, I'm still willing to try.

(Chorus)

There are things I ain't done yet,
And there's a few things I regret that I need to forget,
But the love I feel gets strong yet,
Through the whispers of the past, I won't let it rest.

(Outro)

So I'll cherish the moments, both the good and the bad,
For every tear that I've shed, and the laughter I've had.
With the love that I feel, I'm not done just yet,
I'll keep on livin' with no more regrets.

HOME TO FORT MAC

I've walked the streets of Paris, sailed the seas to Tokyo,
Felt the sun in Rio, watched the midnight fires glow.
Danced through ancient temples, touched the sands of Egypt's shore,
But my heart keeps calling for something more.

(Chorus)

Take me back, take me back to Fort Mac,
Where the rivers run wild and the sky's never black.
From the towers of the world, my heart's never intact,
'Cause all I want is to go back to Fort Mac.

(Verse 2)

I've seen the lights of London, felt the beat of New Orleans,
Wandered through the markets where life's a vibrant scene.
Climbed the hills of Sydney, drank espresso in Istanbul
But none of these places feel dear

(Chorus)

Take me back, take me back to Fort Mac,
Where the mountains stand tall and the lakes reflect back.
From the corners of the globe, there's one thing I lack,
It's the warmth of home, only in Fort Mac.

(Bridge)

Oh, I've flown so high, and I've sailed so far,
But the northern lights will guide my heart.
No matter where I roam, no matter where I lay,
It's the call of Fort Mac that makes me stay.

(Verse 3)

I've chased dreams in Manhattan, breathed the air of old Berlin,
Wandered through the jungles, felt the city's constant spin.
But in every new horizon, in every new face,
I see the shadow of my home's embrace.

(Chorus)

Take me back, take me back to Fort Mac,
Where the rivers run wild and the sky's never black.
From the towers of the world, my heart's never intact,
'Cause all I want is to go back to Fort Mac.

(Outro)

So here's to the travels, the stories, the tracks,
But my soul belongs in Fort Mac.
One day I'll return, and I'll never look back,
To the place I call home, Fort Mac.

MAGIC GARDEN

(Verse 1)

In a hidden valley far away,
There's a garden where the flowers play,
Underneath the moon's soft silver gleam,
Lies a secret, like a dream.

(Chorus)

Oh, the magical garden, where the flowers sing,
A melody of joy, a wondrous thing,
But only when children laugh and dance,
Do the blooms awaken from their trance.

(Verse 2)

Roses whisper tales of long ago,
Lilies hum with a gentle glow,
Daisies laugh in a sweet refrain,
Every petal sings a name.

(Chorus)

Oh, the magical garden, where the flowers sing,
A melody of joy, a wondrous thing,
But only when children laugh and dance,
Do the blooms awaken from their trance.

(Bridge)

No adults can hear the tune,
It's a secret shared by sun and moon,
Only little hearts so pure and free,
Can unlock this mystery.

(Verse 3)

So if you find this hidden place,
With a child's wonder, feel the grace,
Listen closely, you will hear,
The garden's song so crystal clear.

(Chorus)

Oh, the magical garden, where the flowers sing,
A melody of joy, a wondrous thing,
But only when children laugh and dance,
Do the blooms awaken from their trance.

(Outro)

In the magical garden, dreams take flight,
With every note in the soft twilight,
Where flowers sing for those who see,
The world through eyes of mystery.

PICK UP LINES

Verse 1

I walked into that bar, boots heavy with the dirt,
Saw a girl across the room, and man, my heart did hurt.
With a smile that could light up the darkest night,
I knew I had to charm her, had to get my lines just right.

Pre-Chorus

I leaned in close and whispered soft,
Hoping to make her laugh, break the ice.
But every line I said felt like a silly game,
'Cause deep down in my heart, it was always the same.

Chorus

"Do you have a map? 'Cause I got lost in your eyes."
"Are you a magician? You make my world arise."
But all these pick-up lines, they can't disguise,

Dang

I'm just a country boy, looking for a prize.
Want a woman like my mother, loving, kind, and wise.

Verse 2

She laughed and shook her head, but I could see her grin,
With every cheesy line, she let a cowboy in.
But it wasn't just the charm, or the words I chose to say,
It was the way she looked at me that took my breath away.

Pre-Chorus

I talked about the stars, the moon, the setting sun,
She said she loved my heart, not just my lines for fun.
In her eyes, I saw the truth, something pure and real,
A love that felt like home, a love that I could feel.

Chorus

"Is it hot in here, or is it just you?"
"Do you have a Band-Aid? 'Cause I fell for you, it's true."
But all these pick-up lines, they can't disguise,
I'm just a country boy, looking for my prize.
Want a woman like my mother, loving, kind, and wise.

Bridge

She asked about my family, about where I grew up,
I told her 'bout my mama, her strength and all her love.
She smiled and took my hand, said, "I understand,
You're looking for a heart that's true, a real loving man."

Chorus

"Do you believe in love at first sight, or should I walk by again?"
"Are you a time traveler? 'Cause with you, there's no end."
But all these pick-up lines, they can't disguise,
I'm just a country boy, looking for my prize.
Want a woman like my mother, loving, kind, and wise.

Outro

So here's to all the lines, the laughs, the moments shared,
To finding someone special, to knowing that they cared.
And if you hear me sing this song, just know it's from my heart,
I'm a country boy in love, with a woman just like my ma.

CANADA, EH?

(Chorus)

Oh Canada, our home and native land,
With our touques and hockey sticks, we make our stand.
How's it going, neighbor? We'll lend a hand,
And if we bump into you, we'll say, "Sorry," as planned.

(Verse 2)

From the Rockies out west to the Maritimes east,
In every province and town, there's a friendly feast.
Tim Hortons on the corner, a double-double to go,
We're proud to be Canadian, don't you know?

(Chorus)

Oh Canada, where the northern lights glow,
In our rugged wilderness, there's so much to show.
How's it going, friend? Let the good times flow,
And if we step on your toes, we'll say, "Sorry," and go.

(Bridge)

From the cities to the prairies, to the northern shores,
In this land of plenty, our spirit soars.
With our "eh?" and "about," our hearts beat true,
We're Canada strong, through and through.

(Chorus)

Oh Canada, under the northern sky,
In this land of freedom, we'll reach so high.
How's it going, buddy? Let laughter fill the sky,
And if we make a mistake, we'll say, "Sorry," don't cry.

(Outro)

So here's to Canada, our beloved home,
Where kindness and respect are never alone.
With a chesterfield by the fire, we'll raise a cheer,
For Canada, oh Canada, forever dear.

HYPERBOLE MAN

(Verse 1)

Well, I roll into town like a hurricane,
A country boy with a rockstar name.
Got a smile that could light up the darkest night,
And a heart that's always looking for a fight.

(Chorus)

I'm livin' larger than life, bigger than an Alberta sky,
Got a swagger in my step, and a twinkle in my eye.
I'm stronger than an ox, smarter than a wise old man,
Nicer than a saint, with a touch of devil's plan.

(Verse 2)

My truck's got wheels that reach the stars,
When I hit the gas, I'm racing Mars.
Got a bank account as deep as the sea,
Living life like it's just a fantasy.

(Chorus)

I'm livin' larger than life, bigger than an Alberta sky,
Got a swagger in my step, and a twinkle in my eye.
I'm stronger than an ox, smarter than a wise old man,
Nicer than a saint, with a touch of devil's plan.

(Bridge)

When I walk into a room, all the heads turn,
With stories so tall, they make the fires burn.
I'm a legend in the making, with tales to tell,
Living life on the edge, ringing that freedom bell.

(Chorus)

I'm livin' larger than life, bigger than a Texas sky,
Got a swagger in my step, and a twinkle in my eye.
I'm stronger than an ox, smarter than a wise old man,
Nicer than a saint, with a touch of devil's plan.

(Outro)

So here's to the dreamers, living life out loud,
To the ones who stand tall, even in a crowd.
With a heart full of fire and a spirit so free,
I'll keep livin' larger than life, just watch and see

YOUR ARCHITECT

Verse 1:

Saw you standing there, with dreams in your eyes,
A little bit of fear, but ready to rise,
You're facing all these changes, don't know where to start,
But I'm here to build you up, to be the map to your heart.

Pre-Chorus:

Through every high and every low, I'll be by your side,
With every step you take, I'll be your faithful guide,
Together we'll create a life, a masterpiece so grand,
Just take my hand, baby, trust in our plan.

Chorus:

I'm your architect, baby, I'll make you strong,
We'll build these dreams together, where you belong,
With every brick we lay, our love will grow,
I'm your architect, baby, just let it show.

Verse 2:

As a mom, you'll shine with love so pure and bright,
As a lover, you'll ignite the deepest fire in the night,
As a friend, you'll be the rock that others lean upon,
And I'll be here to guide you, from dusk until dawn.

Pre-Chorus:

Through every high and every low, I'll be by your side,
With every step you take, I'll be your faithful guide,
Together we'll create a life, a masterpiece so grand,
Just take my hand, baby, trust in our plan.

Chorus:

I'm your architect, baby, I'll make you strong,
We'll build these dreams together, where you belong,
With every brick we lay, our love will grow,
I'm your architect, baby, just let it show.

Bridge:

We'll design a future, filled with joy and grace,
With every challenge faced, we'll find our perfect place,
Your potential's endless, like the stars above,
And I'll be here forever, building with our love.

Chorus:

I'm your architect, baby, I'll make you strong,
We'll build these dreams together, where you belong,
With every brick we lay, our love will grow,
I'm your architect, baby, just let it show.

Outro:

So trust in me, my love, we'll reach the highest height,
With every plan we draw, we'll see the morning light,
I'm your architect, baby, together we'll stand tall,
In this life we're building, I'm your man

LORD, I NEED AN UPGRADE

Verse 1:

I've been walking through this life, feeling kind of low,
Trying to find the answers, but sometimes I just don't know,
Why I can't be stronger, why I can't be bold,
God, I'm reaching out now, please don't leave me in the cold.

Pre-Chorus:

I've been praying for a change, I've been hoping for a sign,
To make me shine a little brighter, to let my heart unwind,
If there's a way to make it better, if there's a way to make me whole,
Lord, I need your wisdom, won't you heal my soul?

Chorus:

I need an upgrade, the first time through was just the prototype me,
I need an upgrade, to be the best that I can be,
If I can't get two point oh, can you fix me?
Oh, if I can't get an upgrade, can you fix me?

Verse 2:

Want to feel the joy again, want to laugh without a care,
To face each day with courage, knowing you're always there,
Make me a little smarter, make my spirit free,
God, I'm asking humbly, would you upgrade me?

Pre-Chorus:

I've been praying for a change, I've been hoping for a sign,
To make me shine a little brighter, to let my heart unwind,
If there's a way to make it better, if there's a way to make me whole,
Lord, I need your wisdom, won't you heal my soul?

Chorus:

I need an upgrade, the first time through was just the prototype me,
I need an upgrade, to be the best that I can be,
If I can't get two point oh can you fix me?
Oh, if I can't get an upgrade, can you fix me?

Bridge:

Make me healthier and happy, let me find my way,
Give me strength and make me sexy, in every single way,
Let me be the man I'm meant to be, standing proud and tall,
God, with your guidance, I can have it all.

Chorus:

I need an upgrade, the first time through was just the prototype me,
I need an upgrade, to be the best that I can be,
If I can't get an upgrade, can you fix me?
Oh, if I can't get an upgrade, can you fix me?

Outro:

So here I am, I'm asking, won't you hear my plea,
To be smarter, happier, sexier, the man I'm meant to be,
If there's a way to make it better, if there's a way to make me whole,
Lord, I need an upgrade, please heal my soul.

CLICHE MAN

(Verse 1 male)

She walked into my life, like a summer breeze,
With a smile that could light up the darkest of nights with ease.
She had a heart of gold, but a wild streak too,
A cliché woman, with eyes of blue.

(Chorus female)

I've been burnin' the candle at both ends,
But the work is a piece of cake.
I bit off more than I can chew,
My daddy always told me cut the guff and chew,
So in a nutshell, I'm here till it's done.

(Verse 2 male)

She loved like there's no tomorrow, danced in the rain,
And when she laughed, it washed away all my pain.
But she's a rolling stone, and I'm just standing still,
Caught up in her whirlwind, bending to her will.

(Chorus female)

I've been burnin' the candle at both ends,
But the work is a piece of cake.
I bit off more than I can chew,
My daddy always told me cut the guff and chew,
So in a nutshell, I'm here till it's done.

(Bridge male)

She's a walking contradiction, a sweet symphony,
A tangled web of dreams, that's where I want to be.
She's got me tongue-tied, twisted up in knots,
But when she's in my arms, I forget all I've forgot.

(Chorus female)

I've been burnin' the candle at both ends,
But the work is a piece of cake.
I bit off more than I can chew,
My daddy always told me cut the guff and chew,
So in a nutshell, I'm here till it's done.

(Verse 3 male)

She's my wildflower, growing free and wild,
With a soul so pure, and a spirit like a child.
I'll chase her till the end, through the thick and thin,
For this cliché woman, I'll let the story begin.

(Chorus female)

I've been burnin' the candle at both ends,
But the work is a piece of cake.
I bit off more than I can chew,
My daddy always told me cut the guff and chew,
So in a nutshell, I'm here till it's done.

(Outro female)

In a nutshell, I'm here till it's done,
For this cliché woman, who's my only one.
I'll burn the candle, chew the bit, and run,
Till the day is through, and our song is sung

RADIOACTIVE LOVE

(Verse 1)

I met you on a summer's night, beneath a silver moon,
Your eyes were like the stars above, made my heart go boom.
But love turned radioactive, like a danger without a warning sign,
Now I'm stuck between the fallout, and this heart of mine.

(Chorus)

If I stay, I will glow for a while and die,
If I go, I will lose the love that gives me life.
Caught between the danger and the sweetest lie,
If I stay, I will glow for a while and die.

(Verse 2)

We danced under the neon lights, sparks flew in the dark,
But now your touch is burning me, leaving a scarred mark.
Every kiss a bitter taste, a dose of sweet despair,
I'm walking on a tightrope, through this love affair.

(Chorus)

If I stay, I will glow for a while and die,
If I go, I will lose the love that gives me life.
Caught between the danger and the sweetest lie,
If I stay, I will glow for a while and die.

(Bridge)

Love's a double-edged sword, and I'm caught in the crossfire,
A radioactive wasteland, where desire turns to fire
I'm haunted by the memories, of how we used to be,
But now your love's a poison, that's slowly killing me.

(Chorus)

If I stay, I will glow for a while and die,
If I go, I will lose the love that gives me life.
Caught between the danger and the sweetest lie,
If I stay, I will glow for a while and die.

(Outro)

So I'll ride into the sunset, leave the past behind,
Searching for a new dawn, and some peace of mind.
Maybe love will find me, in a place where hearts are free,
But for now, I'll let go, and just try to be me.

(Chorus)

If I stay, I will glow for a while and die,
If I go, I will lose the love that gives me life.
Caught between the danger and the sweetest lie,
If I stay, I will glow for a while and die.

(Final Line)

If I stay, I will glow for a while and die.

BOOMERS

We remember when gas was cheap and rock 'n' roll was gold,
Now we're swapping war stories 'bout the good ol' days of old.
From Woodstock to disco, we danced through it all,
Now we're shuffling through Walmart, praying not to fall.

(Chorus)

We got old folks by the dozen, geezers by the score,
Every time I turn around there's more and more and more.
With our walkers and our bifocals, we still hit the floor,
We got old folks by the dozen, and we're ready to explore!

(Verse 2)

We raised the kids and paid our dues, now we're hitting retirement,
Trading in our nine-to-fives for some sunny beach environments.
Our knees might be creaky, our backs a little sore,
But give us a shuffleboard and we'll show you what it's for.

(Chorus)

We got old folks by the dozen, geezers by the score,
Every time I turn around there's more and more and more.
With our walkers and our bifocals, we still hit the floor,
We got old folks by the dozen, and we're ready to explore!

(Bridge)

We've got RVs, we've got cruises, we've got grandkids galore,
Collecting all our pensions, still leaving tips to poor.
Our music's classic rock, and our memories are long,
You can call us boomers, but we're still going strong.

(Chorus)

We got old folks by the dozen, geezers by the score,
Every time I turn around there's more and more and more.
With our walkers and our bifocals, we still hit the floor,
We got old folks by the dozen, and we're ready to explore!

(Outro)

So here's to all the boomers, living life full steam,
In our golden years, we're still chasing dreams.
From senior discounts to living free and wild,
We're the generation that will never be mild.

(Chorus)

We got old folks by the dozen, geezers by the score,
Every time I turn around there's more and more and more.
With our walkers and our bifocals, we still hit the floor,
We got old folks by the dozen, and we're ready to explore!

THE LIBRARY LADY

(Verse 1)

In a quiet place where dreams lay low,
Lives a magic lady, that we all know,
She walks in silence, her smile so kind,
With a bag of books, she opens minds.

(Pre-Chorus)

When the sun is high, or the stars do gleam,
She weaves her stories into a childhood dream.

(Chorus)

Library lady, with your tales so bright,
Take us to a land of pure delight,
Pages turn and our hearts take flight,
Library lady, guide us through the light

(Verse 2)

Whispered secrets in the old oak tree,
Pirates sailing on a moonlit sea,
Knights and dragons in a far-off land,
All come alive with a wave of her hand.

(Pre-Chorus)

She's the keeper of worlds, both near and far,
Guiding us on a journey to the stars.

(Chorus)

Library lady, with your tales so bright,
Take us to a land of pure delight,
Pages turn and our hearts take flight,
Library lady, guide us through the night.

(Bridge)

Through the pages, we learn and grow,
Adventures beckon, the more we know,
In every story, a piece of truth,
In every word, the joy of youth.

(Chorus)

Library lady, with your tales so bright,
Take us to a land of pure delight,
Pages turn and our hearts take flight,
Library lady, guide us through the light.

(Outro)

So here's to the lady, with her books in hand,
She leads us gently to a wonderland,
With every story, she sets us free,
In the land of imagination, forever we'll be.

ALBERTA HOME

(Verse 1)

Under the big sky, where the Rockies rise,
I hit the road, with Alberta in my eyes,
The prairies stretch, golden and wide,
I can feel my heart swell with every mile.

(Chorus)

I'm driving to my Alberta home,
Where the wild rivers and the buffalo roam,
From the city lights to the starry nights,
There's no place I'd rather be tonight.
Oh, I'm driving to my Alberta home.

(Verse 2)

Fields of canola, swaying in the breeze,
Snow-capped peaks, standing tall with ease,
The whispering pines, the open plains,
In every sunset, I hear the refrain.

(Chorus)

I'm driving to my Alberta home,
Where the wild rivers and the buffalo roam,
From the city lights to the starry nights,
There's no place I'd rather be tonight.
Oh, I'm driving to my Alberta home.

(Bridge)

Through the foothills, I can feel the pull,
Of memories past and stories full,
Every turn, every curve, every mile I roam,
Leads me closer to that place I know.

(Verse 3)

The Chinook winds, they guide my way,
Through Jasper's peaks and Banff's array,
The northern lights dance in the sky,
I'm almost there, where my heart lies.

(Chorus)

I'm driving to my Alberta home,
Where the wild rivers and the buffalo roam,
From the city lights to the starry nights,
There's no place I'd rather be tonight.
Oh, I'm driving to my Alberta home.

(Outro)

So here I am, where the wildflowers grow,
In the land I love, where the rivers flow,
With every step, with every turn,
I'm back to the place where my heart yearns.
Oh, I'm home, I'm home, my Alberta home.

DOES SHE LOVE ME?

[Verse]

Does she love me I gotta know
Should I show her or let it go

[Verse 2]

It's in her touch so warm and sweet
This feeling's got me off my feet

[Chorus]

Does she love me oh I wonder
Heart in pieces torn asunder

[Verse]

It's in the way she talks to me
Like moonlight on an open sea

[Bridge]

It's in the way she walks my way
Her smile brighter than the day

[Chorus]

Does she love me oh I wonder
Heart in pieces torn asunder

AH, THAT MILLARVILLE GIRL

(Verse 1)

Well, she's a firecracker, born to be wild,
A honky-tonk angel, never running mild.
With a heart of gold and a sassy little smile,
She's the queen of the rodeo, walking down the aisle.

(Chorus)

She's a feisty lady, hotter than a Texas sun,
Tougher than a cowboy, she's always on the run.
With a heart that's wild and free, like the tumbleweeds,
She's the kind of woman, every country boy needs.

(Verse 2)

She's a pistol-packing mama, with a twinkle in her eye,
Stirrin' up trouble, like a stormy sky.
In her red high heels and her denim jeans,
She's the hottest thing this side of New Orleans.

(Chorus)

She's a feisty lady, hotter than a Texas sun,
Tougher than a cowboy, she's always on the run.
With a heart that's wild and free, like the tumbleweeds,
She's the kind of woman, every country boy needs.

(Bridge)

Well, she's a rebel yellin', fun lovin' queen,
Lighting up the night, like you've never seen.
She's a little bit of heaven, with a whole lotta hell,
A country song come to life, and she wears it well.

(Chorus)

She's a feisty lady, hotter than a Texas sun,
Tougher than a cowboy, she's always on the run.
With a heart that's wild and free, like the tumbleweeds,
She's the kind of woman, every country boy needs.

(Outro)

So here's to that feisty lady, in a small-town bar,
Shining like a diamond, brighter than a star.
She's the talk of the town, and the belle of the ball,
In the world of country, she's the queen of them all.

LIFE IS A FISHIN TRIP

(Verse 1)

Out on the water, with my rod and reel,
Chasing dreams and memories, that's how I feel.
The sun is rising, casting its golden glow,
Life's like fishing, you never really know.

(Chorus)

Sometimes you catch the big one, sometimes you just get by,
Casting out your hopes, under the endless sky.
Patience and persistence, that's the way it goes,
Life's a lot like fishing, with its highs and lows.

(Verse 2)

I've had days when nothing bites, just waiting on a sign,
And days when they're jumping, like everything's just fine.
In the quiet moments, I find my peace,
Life's like fishing, where troubles seem to cease.

(Chorus)

Sometimes you catch the big one, sometimes you just get by,
Casting out your hopes, under the endless sky.
Patience and persistence, that's the way it goes,
Life's a lot like fishing, with its highs and lows.

(Bridge)

Every cast's a chance, every line's a dream,
Sometimes you're floating gently, sometimes you're in the stream.
You take what you get, with a thankful heart,
In the waters of life, we all play a part.

(Chorus)

Sometimes you catch the big one, sometimes you just get by,
Casting out your hopes, under the endless sky.
Patience and persistence, that's the way it goes,
Life's a lot like fishing, with its highs and lows.

(Outro)

So I'll keep on casting, through the calm and storm,
Finding joy in the journey, where dreams are born.
With my rod and reel, and my heart so free,
Life's a lot like fishing, it's where I'm meant to be.

WEATHER OR NOT

(Verse 1)

The sky was once so clear, now it's overcast,
The sunny days we cherished, just couldn't last.
A storm is brewing where our love once bloomed,
Now I'm stuck inside this room, feeling so consumed.

(Chorus)

Rain is pouring down like the tears I cry,
Thunder rolls and echoes, like our last goodbye.
Lightning strikes the heart where love used to be,
Our forecast now is only misery.

(Verse 2)

We had our springtime, flowers in full bloom,
But seasons changed too quickly, led us to our doom.
The summer heat we shared, faded into fall,
Now winter's cold embraces, tells it all.

(Chorus)

Rain is pouring down like the tears I cry,
Thunder rolls and echoes, like our last goodbye.
Lightning strikes the heart where love used to be,
Our forecast now is only misery.

(Bridge)

I remember when our love was like a gentle breeze,
But now it's just a hurricane, knocking down our dreams.
The rain keeps falling, washing us away,
Nothing but a flood of memories, in this disarray.

(Chorus)

Rain is pouring down like the tears I cry,
Thunder rolls and echoes, like our last goodbye.
Lightning strikes the heart where love used to be,
Our forecast now is only misery.

(Outro)

The storm will pass, the skies will clear one day,
But for now, I'm lost in this weather, swept away.
The sun might shine again, but we'll never be,
'Cause love's forecast was never meant for you and me.

TOGETHER

Verse 1:

In a playground, bright and merry,
Children laugh and run so free,
Tiny hands and tiny feet,
Discovering the world they see.

Chorus:

Young hearts and silver hair,
Different worlds, a love to share,
Stories told and wisdom gained,
In this circle, joy remains.

Verse 2:

Little ones with dreams so wide,
Eager eyes, no need to hide,
Chasing butterflies and light,
Seniors smile at the sight.

Chorus:

Young hearts and silver hair,
Different worlds, a love to share,
Stories told and wisdom gained,
In this circle, joy remains.

Bridge:

Hand in hand, they walk along,
Singing life's sweet, gentle song,
Past and future intertwine,
Moments precious, so divine.

Verse 3:

Grandma's tales of days gone by,
Sparkling in the grandkids' eyes,
Time may change, but love endures,
In each wrinkle, youth ensures.

Chorus:

Young hearts and silver hair,
Different worlds, a love to share,
Stories told and wisdom gained,
In this circle, joy remains.

Outro:

From the cradle to the wise,
Life's a journey, a surprise,
Together, we are strong and true,
Old and young, we see it through.

BLUE JEANS LOVE

We were once brand new, like a perfect pair of blues,
Every thread so tight, every color so bright,
But over time we changed, started feeling strange,
Fading like the fabric, losing all the magic.

Pre-Chorus

We wore each other out, through every twist and shout,
Memories in every line, but now it's hard to find,
The spark that made us shine, like denim over time.

Chorus

Our love's like faded jeans, once so strong, now just seams,
Worn and torn with every fight, lost the color, lost the light,
We were timeless in our prime, now we're losing thread and rhyme,
Our love's like faded jeans, can't go back to what it means.

Verse 2

Every wash and tear, left us both in despair,
Frayed edges, worn-out knees, trying hard to please,
But we're just holding on, to something almost gone,
Stretched and pulled apart, like old denim at the heart.

Pre-Chorus

We wore each other thin, trying to fit back in,
To the love we used to know, but now it's all for show,
Fading like the past, nothing made to last.

Chorus

Our love's like faded jeans, once so strong, now just seams,
Worn and torn with every fight, lost the color, lost the light,
We were timeless in our prime, now we're losing thread and rhyme,

TIMELESS LOVE
